   a) Staff shared the budget projection for the one (1) Percent for Art Fund in 2023 at $100,000
   b) Budget based on $50,000 annual minimum balance maintained and $50,000 in projected collections
   c) The Meadowdale Park capital project is on hold until 2024 and this impacts the budget significantly.
   d) Staff reviewed 2023 draft workplan developed using the Commission’s Vision, Mission and Purpose Document with updates including:
      i. Adding domain name, website maintenance to Digital Marketing ii. Adding unaccounted for $7,000 to the Annual Grant program.

MOTION: Approve the 2023 Work Plan:

Arts and Culture Grant $36,000 total with unaccounted for $7,000 added Strategic Leadership and Planning $25,000.
Digital Marketing $25,000
Public Art Acquisition, Maintenance and Repair $10,000
Snohomish County Cultural Arts Network (CAN) $4,000

MSP

e.) Staff explained rationale for funding request submitted on behalf of the Arts Commission to the County Office of Recovery and Resiliency for Phase 2 and 3 of a County Arts and Culture Strategic Plan i.) For consideration the request must support / align with County economic development priorities for workforce jobs and small businesses ii.) If cap was lifted on the Arts one (1) Percent, a strategy would help add transparency to spending plans iii) To cite in external grant requests

f.) Arts Commission presentation of 2023 Work Plan to County Council set for August 23, 2022
   i) An Ad hoc Presentation Committee will schedule time with staff to create the presentation.

MOTION: Create Ad Hoc Presentation Committee to prepare 2023 Work Plan presentation to the County Council, with two Commissioners to present.
