secretary, a treasurer, and an events coordinator to join the Board in 2020. Board positions are a 2-year term, for 2 terms maximum. Aside from the monthly meetings (7:30 to 9 pm, 3rd Thursday of the month), board members also provide occasional support at walks and tabling events throughout the year.

Secretary: Takes meeting notes and sends to president ahead of the next meeting; president distributes them to the group with next meeting’s agenda. Sends form thank-you letters to members and donors. Estimated time commitment: 3 to 4 hours per month.

Treasurer: Our fiscal sponsor, Berkeley Partners for Parks (BPFP), controls our bank account and manages any tax implications. The treasurer assists by tracking income and expenses and sending deposit forms and check requests to the BPFP bookkeeper. Also provides a short report at the monthly board meetings. Estimated time commitment: 3 to 4 hours per month.

Events coordinator: Reserves booth at annual Solano Stroll, BAHA House Tour, and Community Preparedness Fair. Schedules volunteers for tabling shifts. On the day of the event, organizes the booth setup and take down, with help from other volunteers. Coordinates with the Hillside Club for the annual meeting. Estimated time commitment: 2 hours per month in non-event months, 6 to 8 hours per month in event months.

Please email us if you are interested in joining the board for a 2-year term starting in January 2020.

Wildcat Peak Sunrise Breakfast Hike

Date: Saturday, November 2, 6 am – 9:00 am

Leader: Erika Wilson

Start: Inspiration Point in Tilden Park. Meet at the start of the paved Nimitz Way trail. Ample parking and restrooms are available at the trailhead.
Calling all early birds! Bring your flashlight, an extra layer, and breakfast for a 4.5-mile, out-and-back sunrise hike from Inspiration Point to Wildcat Peak in Tilden Park. We will start in the dark and walk along the Nimitz Way trail as dawn breaks over the East Bay hills. The trail is mostly flat and paved, with a short but somewhat steep 0.25 mile climb on a dirt trail up to Wildcat Peak. At the top we will take some time to enjoy breakfast as we watch the sunrise and take in sweeping views of the hills, San Francisco, and the North Bay. Rain cancels; if in doubt, please check the BPWA website the night before the hike for an update.

San Francisco Crosstown Trail Part 3: Forest Hill to Glen Park (Hike 3 of a 4-Hike Series)
Date: Saturday, November 16, 2019 10 am - 12 pm
Leader: Alina Constantinescu
Start: Sidewalk in front of Forest Hill Muni Light Rail Station. Street parking in the neighborhood is free, though it’s not always easy to find a spot. Muni K, L, M, T stop here.
End: Glen Park BART

This fall, the Wanderers are determined to hike the entire length of San Francisco’s latest urban adventure: the Crosstown Trail. We plan to cover the 17-mile route in a series of four hikes, scheduled once a month from September to December.
Our November hike is a 3-mile section exploring the hidden trails behind the Laguna Honda Hospital, fun canyons and outcrops in Glen Canyon Park, and a greenway that is steps away from Glen Park BART. From the endpoint at Glen Park BART, hikers can choose to head home or return to Forest Hill Muni (or other destinations) via public transit or car share.

Optional: Those who would like an extended hike can continue with the group and hike back to the starting point at Forest Hill. Bring a picnic lunch if you are sticking around for the return hike. The route back is 3.5 miles and challenging, with several hills along the way. We will explore Mount Davidson (San Francisco’s highest point), Edgehill Open Space, and several staircase paths. Estimated end-time for the round-trip option is 3:30 pm.

Save-the-date for the final hike in the series: Sunday, Dec. 15.

Berkeley Woods

Date: Saturday, December 7, 10 am - 12:30 pm
Leader: Bob Johnson
Start: 580 Grizzly Peak Blvd, 3 houses south of where Euclid ends at Grizzly Peak. 65 bus stops at Euclid and Grizzly Peak, but buses run once per hour on Saturday;
Bob Johnson, co-author of Berkeley Walks, leads this hilly, \( \sim 3 \) mile walk in the northeast corner of Berkeley. The walk, one of his new free series of Berkeley walks, includes land formerly occupied by plant nurseries, and it features tall trees, views to the east and west, a variety of 20th-century architecture, the former homes of famous people, and an historic seminary that is now a Muslim college. We will explore two little-known paths, and walk up and down the ridge. The streets generally do not have sidewalks but traffic is scant.

San Francisco Crosstown Trail Part 4: Glen Park to Candlestick Point
(Hike 4 of the 4-Hike Series)
Date: Sunday, December 15, 2019 10 am - 1:30 pm
Leader: Alina Constantinescu
Start: Plaza Glen Park BART
End: Candlestick Park (1.5 miles from Muni T line).

Our December hike is the final southbound stretch, a 5.6-mile, 650-foot elevation gain section exploring John McLaren Park and hidden greenways and community gardens in Visitacion Valley, and ending in a state park on the Bay shore: Candlestick Point State Recreation Area. At the end, you can choose to take car share or retrace your steps 1.5 miles to Muni Line T for public transit options. Alternatively, you can choose to end your hike early when we first pass the T Line at mile marker 4.1.

Optional: Those who are up for a challenge can stick with the group and hike back to Glen Park BART for a total 11.2-mile loop. We will use a different route heading back, seeing a different side of McLaren Park and "pocket parks" in surrounding neighborhoods. Bring snacks and a lunch if you’re sticking around for the long hike. Lunch will be around mile 7.5. Estimated end-time for the roundtrip option is 4:30 pm.
