LUNCHEON LECTURES 2023-24

Dec. 1st, Jan. 19th, March 1st, May 10th
WISD, 1819 S. Wagner, Ann Arbor

Registration fees:
1 Luncheon Lecture=$45
Luncheon Lecture series=$140
Lunch Served
Continental breakfast on May 10th

Friday Dec. 1st
12-2 p.m.
Unpacking Implicit Bias:
Creating Inclusive Environments
This workshop is designed to help participants recognize, understand, and address implicit biases, with the overarching goal of fostering inclusive environments in different settings.

SPEAKER
Dr. Kimberly Jones, Ph.D., J.D.
Washtenaw County Sheriff Office

Friday Jan. 19th
12-2 p.m.
Helping Children Manage Stress
This workshop will cover why kids and adults are stressed and how to create environments and take actions to mediate the stress of our children & ourselves.

SPEAKER
Courtney Aldrich, MA
Educational Psychology

Friday Mar. 1st
12-2 p.m.
Supporting Teens Experiencing Dating Violence
This workshop will cover the characteristics & dynamics of teen dating violence, strategies for parents & professionals, understanding consent and healthy relationships.

SPEAKER
Laura P. Hoehner-Dane, MA, NPMG, LMSW-Safe House Center

Friday May 10th
10 a.m.–12:00 p.m.
How To Recognize child Maltreatment
This workshop will discuss the prevalence of child maltreatment, the impact on children, along with how to recognize signs of abusive injury & when to be concerned.

SPEAKER
Carla A. Parkin-Joseph, MD, FAAP
Andrea Duncan, MSN, RN, CPNP
Martha Kerr, LMSW

WWW.WASHTENAWCHILDREN.ORG

SCECH & Social Work Clock Hours Available
Email: robin@washtenawchildren.org

Register now at: