

Week Eight

The Sermon on the Mount

Matthew 7:1-12

1. This week, Jesus turns our attention from how we, as Kingdom Citizens, should rightly view the goods of this world, to how we should rightly view the _____ of this world.

*Accept one another, then, just as Christ accepted you, in order to bring praise to God.
Romans 15:7*

2. One of the best indicators of the health of your relationship with _____ is the way you treat and respond to the people in your life.

*Truly, I say to you, as you did it to one of the least of these my brothers, you did it to me.
Matthew 25:40*

3. Think of Matthew 7:1 in this way, “_____ not, that you be not condemned.”

*Who is to condemn? Christ Jesus is the one who died—more than that, who was raised—who is at the right hand of God, who indeed is interceding for us.
Romans 8:34*

4. Jesus warns us of a human propensity toward hypocrisy in Chapter 6 of the Sermon and of a human propensity toward _____ in Chapter 7.

*You hypocrite, first take the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to take the speck out of your brother’s eye.
Matthew 7:5*

5. As Kingdom citizens, we must not condemn others - but we are called to _____ and to _____ .

*“Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves; so be shrewd as serpents and innocent as doves.”
Matthew 10:16*

6. In order to correctly discern the faults of others and correctly address them, we must have

_____ .

If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask God, who gives generously to all without reproach, and it will be given him.

James 1:5

7. Jesus tells us that we need to be able to evaluate and discern other people correctly, ourselves correctly, and also that we need to evaluate and discern _____ correctly.

"And I will be a father to you, And you shall be sons and daughters to Me," Says the Lord Almighty.

2 Corinthians 6:18

8. In verse 12, Jesus shows us how we can achieve a greater _____ in regards to the people of this world.

"So whatever you wish that others would do to you, do also to them, for this is the Law and the Prophets."

Matthew 7:12
