Study the Bible on your own by asking these 5 questions of each chapter of Scripture:

1. What does this passage teach me about God?

(Who is he? What is he like? What does he do?)

2. What does this passage teach me about humanity?

(Who are we? What are we like? What do we do? How are we like God in each of these things?
How are we unlike God in each of these things?)

3. What does this passage teach me about the nature of the relationship between God and humanity?

(As it currently is? As its was originally designed to be?)

4. What truth does this passage illuminate? What lie does this passage uncover?

5. What conviction, correction, instruction, encouragement, or promise does this passage offer me?
