WINE National Catholic Women's Conference

Good morning/evening. My name is [name] and I am a parishioner here at [parish]. I am here to offer a special invitation to all the women of our parish to join me for the WINE National Catholic Women's Conference on Saturday, October 21. This is the first time that the WINE National Women's Ministry is hosting a national conference for women and the Archdiocese of Philadelphia has been chosen as the host. We'll be welcoming women from across the country!

At the conference, dynamic Catholic speakers Kelly Wahlquist, Teresa Tomeo, Kitty Cleveland and Sarah Christmyer will inspire you and musician Amanda Vernon will rejuvenate your spirit. The day will include time for Mass, Confession, prayer, rest, socializing, and shopping. It will be a time to stop away from the daily routine, connect with God and with friends, and let your heart be restored.

The Conference will take place on Saturday, October 21, 2017, 8:30am-4pm at the National Shrine of Our Lady of Czestochowa in Doylestown, PA. Last year's local women's conference sold out 5 weeks in advance, so I recommend that you register as soon as possible. There is a special group discount rate available, so bring your friends!

[If applicable, add here information about ways your parish is organizing registration.]
