INDICATORS OF MODERN SLAVERY

THE CLEWER INITIATIVE

WWW.THECLEWERINITIATIVE.ORG
WHAT DOES MODERN SLAVERY LOOK LIKE?

Victims of modern slavery can be of any age, race, or gender. There is no ‘typical’ victim. However, there are physical and behavioural indicators that may mean someone is being exploited.

APPEARANCE
- Show signs of physical or psychological abuse and untreated injuries
- Look malnourished or unkempt, or appear withdrawn and neglected
- Seem under the control or influence of others
- Wear the same clothes every day
- Wear no safety equipment even if their work requires it

ACCOMMODATION
- Living in dirty, cramped or overcrowded accommodation
- Living and working at the same address
- Appear unfamiliar with their neighbourhood or where they work

TRAVEL
- Rarely allowed to travel on their own
- Collected and dropped off on a regular basis early in the morning or late at night
- In a crowded minibus with other workers
- Have no control of their identification documents such as their passport

SEEKING HELP
- Reluctant to seek help and avoid eye contact
- Frightened or hesitant to talk to strangers
- Fear of police, don’t know who to trust or where to get help
- Afraid of deportation, and of the risk of violence to themselves or their family
