The Deer Creek Bar is outside, so dress accordingly. The Miners Foundry offers comedy during the month of April, featuring performances by Daniel von Appen, Jacob Freydont-Attie, and more. There are many ways to get involved and support the arts in Nevada County.

During the month of April, local businesses, residents, building owners, and the City of Nevada will participate in a month-long clean-up project. The Nevada City Chamber of Commerce and Nevada City will collaborate on this initiative, which includes power-washing sidewalks, painting curbs, building planter boxes, and weeding. During the month of April, there are various events and opportunities available to Nevada County artists, including the Nevada County Arts Council’s call for artists and curators.

There is a Q&A webinar for interested artists today, April 13th at 5pm. Attendees are encouraged to participate and ask questions about the CUE Art Foundation Call for Artists and Curators. The webinar will provide an overview of the program, including the nomination form, and artists will have the opportunity to ask questions about the application process and requirements.

For more information about the Nevada County Arts Council’s Call for Artists and Curators, as well as the opportunities available to artists in Nevada County, visit the Nevada County Arts Council’s website. Don’t forget to check the Nevada County Arts Council’s website for the latest news and updates on events and opportunities in the arts.
