Bobi Wine expressed his disbelief that Museveni saw nothing wrong with such practices. Nepotism, sectarianism, and abuse of power were the other issues raised by Bobi Wine. He also highlighted the numerous atrocities committed by Amin, such as the killings of Acholi and Lango soldiers in Mbarara, prisoners in Mutukula prison, as well as Ben Kiwanuka and Basil Bataringaya.

Aid workers hope to use the structures of international criminal law to help deal with crimes in the future, but in the meantime, the ability of these courts to act is hampered by the absence of support from the most powerful states.

The appointment of an international judge, currently in London, may help in the future. A bi-weekly e-newsletter that compiles official documents and articles from major news sources detailing and analyzing salient issues pertaining to the investigation and prosecution of alleged perpetrators of gross human rights violations and war crimes be impartially prosecuted and, if found guilty, convicted and punished in accordance with the gravity of the acts committed, regardless of the identity of the perpetrator.

Tweahway, former Managing Director of the National Port Authority (NPA), who was elected as Senator of Rivercess County. Both McGill and Tweahway have been sanctioned by the United States Treasury.

In a statement released after the elections, CEWAECCL asserted that the election of alleged warlords and individuals accused of economic crimes could exacerbate the challenges in seeking justice for past atrocities committed in the country.

October 31, 2023

Cummings told AFP that the establishment of the court was one of the 12 conditions he had relayed to Weah and Boakai for his possible support.

Emeka, who describes himself in his Facebook profile as a rifleman in the Nigerian Army, included a comment in Nigerian English.

In pictures of the same bodies posted by others on social media, however, the young man bears wounds and other marks that match those visible in the video, Bellingcat found.

Pictured among the dead is Emeka Obiagwu, a Nigerian soldier from Biu.

In a series of messages on Twitter in 2019, the Nigerian Army condemned a “gory video” that it said reportedly depicted its personnel engaged in the extrajudicial killing of a Boko Haram suspect. It said it was not aware of the soldier’s identity or the identity of the person who took the video.

October 19, 2023

IS group-linked militants kill 17 in Nigeria for failing to pay ‘cattle tax’ (France 24)

Abdul Rahman surrendered to authorities in the Central African Republic, near the border with Sudan, in 2020. In his first appearance at the ICC that same year, he said the charges against him were “untrue.”

Sudanese laws did not, and still do not, provide command responsibility, a key principle that allows the judiciary to hold commanders liable for crimes committed, and not solely the direct perpetrators who committed the acts.

The UK welcomes the positive progress outlined by the Secretary-General in the latest report. This includes improved border management policy, more inclusion of women in political processes and achieving a 15% women representation in the civil service.

2023

MINUSMA has operated in Mali since 2012 when Islamist militants took control of the north. Violence has persisted ever since.

First on CNN: US Navy warship near Yemen intercepts multiple missiles, US officials say (CNN)

Commission of Inquiry finds further evidence of war crimes in Ukraine (United Nations News)
On Wednesday, two drones targeted the al-Tanf garrison in Syria, where US and anti-ISIS coalition forces are based, Ryder said. One drone was engaged and destroyed, and another drone impacted the base.

First on CNN: US Navy warship near Yemen intercepts multiple missiles, US officials say (CNN)

The crime of incitement to genocide exists in international humanitarian law, but it has not been used for a prosecution since the Rwanda tribunal, and is hard to make stick without a ruling that genocide did.

October 26, 2023

Humeniuk said that Ukraine's military has not, however, observed the "simultaneous launch of cruise missiles and guided aerial bombs."

Saturday. Russian forces have for weeks been pressing an offensive to retake territory near Kupiansk and the nearby town of Lyman.

Russian troops on Friday launched a fresh offensive north of Avdiivka that has secured minor gains, according to an analysis by the Institute for the Study of War. The Washington-based think tank cited Moroz said that exploding drones, missiles, mortars and artillery shells fired by Russian troops also struck other parts of the region.

The UN Human Rights Council established the Independent Commission of Inquiry on Ukraine in March 2022, shortly after the start of the full-scale Russian invasion. The mandate was extended in April for committed so brutally that the victim died.

The commissioners said their interviews with victims and witnesses revealed "a profound disregard towards human dignity by Russian authorities". Witnesses reported situations in which torture had been dilute the criminal attribution to Mr. Mustafa," she added.

However, many Kosovo Albanians believe that the court is ethnically biased and denigrates the KLA's just war against Serbian repression.

"I am certain that the prosecution, willingly, has turned all the arguments upside down without viewing them from the initial declarations of the prosecution witnesses up to the decision of the trial panel," he compound's agricultural building were refused food and medical treatment, kept in filthy conditions, and beaten.

The 48-year-old Mustafa wore a dark suit to court and listened to the translation of the hearing, conducted mostly in English, through headphones.

Netanyahu has also called the PKK a "terrorist organization."

The Hamas-controlled health ministry in Gaza said Saturday that Israel had killed 7,703 people — mainly civilians, with more than 3,500 of them children. The figures could not be independently verified and peace—against war, exploitation, and oppression in the Middle East.

He accused Western powers of "shedding tears" over the death of civilians in Ukraine and turning a blind eye to the death of Palestinian civilians in Gaza.

On Wednesday, judge Gilbert Bitti claimed there was a difference between witness Shala's testimony to prosecutors in 2019 and what he said in court.

"quasi-compliance" whenever it arises, calling it unconscionable and an affront to victims.

In a statement released yesterday, Mohamed Chande Othman, the chairperson of the commission, stated, "We found evidence of war crimes and crimes against humanity committed on a staggering scale. In the

The commission expressed regret over the UN Human Rights Council's recent decision not to renew its mandate before completing its work, stating that it abandoned numerous distressed victims who felt

"We found evidence of war crimes and human rights violations committed by Russian authorities in Ukraine, including

A new UN report has found continued evidence of war crimes and human rights violations committed by Russian authorities in Ukraine, including

At the second day of appeals hearings at the Kosovo Specialist Chambers in The Hague on Friday, former Kosovo Liberation Army, KLA unit war crimes.

Turkey's alleged systemic war crimes in North and East Syria have been brought to the fore in the Norwegian parliament. Red Party MP Seher Aydar that the presence of FDLR in DRC, which enjoys the backing of Kinshasa, is a major deterrent to regional security and stability.

Speaking earlier on Monday at the opening of the Preparatory Conference for the 2023 Peacekeeping Ministerial on Protection of Civilians and Strategic Communications, the Minister of Defence, Juvenal Minister said.

that the defendant was not a commanding officer at a detention centre in Kukes, Albania, where the prosecution alleges his crimes were

He called for an inquiry into Museveni's own atrocities, believing that it would surpass any previous investigations.

He called for an inquiry into Museveni's own atrocities, believing that it would surpass any previous investigations.

are facing the charges on the abduction with intent to murder contrary to Section 258 of the Penal Code Chapter 63, Laws for Kenya.
Lina, a 24-year-old Palestinian Muslim woman in Gaza. We moved to a place in the south, but honestly, nowhere is safe. I'm freaking out. It's f*cking crazy. We can't sleep, we can't eat. We've lost friends, relatives, and neighbors. I'm still in shock about everything.

Access to healthcare is tightening by the hour in Gaza. WHO said on Tuesday that a third of hospitals and nearly two thirds of primary health care clinics in the territory have shut down.

One of the main challenges of universal jurisdiction cases, assuming that they proceed to the point of a trial, is detaining the accused. were Min Aung Hlaing and his cronies can simply avoid traveling to the other implementing partners.

The report says that the Taliban has imposed numerous policies violating the rights of women and girls, including bans on education beyond grade six, access to public spaces, traveling without a male guardian, performing assets.

Despite the substantial aid provided by the United States, there have been modest improvements in various sectors of the Afghan economy, but the commercial banking sector remains a concern. Da other implementing partners.

Rainbow Afghanistan's intervention comes after a painful two years for the country's queer community. The group added: "We believe that what is happening in Afghanistan is a clear example of gender apartheid and human crime."

Worth Reading

Carsen Thompson, Senior Editor

Lucas Katz, Senior Editor

Sophia Fisher, Senior Editor

Margaret Crookstan, Associate Editor

Annalie Buscarino, Associate Editor

Nikita Joshi, Associate Editor

Emerging Issues Advisor

Harper Fox, Associate Editor

Founder/Advisor

October 25, 2023

The United States Inspector General for Afghanistan Reconstruction (SIGAR) has released its 61st Quarterly Report to Congress, shedding light on the escalation.

"We will continue to remain on the ground listening to the voices of women and girls, hearing their perspectives and translating those to the international community so that their needs can be prioritized even more."