Purpose of the Meeting:  This is a Regular Quarterly Meeting of the Rhode Island Commission for National Commission and Community Service. The primary purpose of the meeting is to brief Commission Members on the impact of the coronavirus pandemic on AmeriCorps programs and review an equity analysis of the AmeriCorps living allowance. The Commission will also discuss the use of funds made available from the closure of the nonprofit Serve Rhode Island and the process for naming officers to the Commission. The meeting will take place through the web-based Zoom platform in response to social distancing measures issued by Executive Order of the Governor.
