FURNITURE

We are so grateful for all the furniture that was donated to the school this year! The middle schoolers are especially enjoying having lockers to help organize all their materials. We are still looking for three to four large solid wood bookcases (used but in good shape). Please let us know if you have any leads.

MASCOT

We love our new mascot - the "raptor." He's friendly, mischievous, competitive, and needs a name! Help us name him by submitting names to the school via email at info@tschristianacademy.org.

FIELD TRIP

TSCA will be doing an all school field trip to the Ark Encounter on September 27th. We will have the privilege of being transported to the Ark by an official Ark bus! Permission slips will be sent home soon with details and there will be an option to purchase lunch from the delicious Emzara's Buffet.

RESOURCES

AiG has released a new children’s book called One Blood for Kids. This is a great resource to use to combat racism in our culture today starting with what the Bible teaches on the subject. This book explains why we look different while defending we are one human race. It also takes a look into what happened at the tower of Babel and how the gene pool was split apart. Most importantly it gives a challenge to be part of the family of God.

Isn't it great that we have resources like these available at our fingertips today to help raise our children to be grounded in the truth!

FAMILY - SCHOOL - CHURCH

Ephesians 6:4 states, "Fathers, do not provoke your children to anger, but bring them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord."

Deuteronomy 6:6-7 states, "And these words that I command you today shall be on your heart. You shall teach them diligently to your children, and shall talk of them when you sit in your house, and when you walk by the way, and when you lie down, and when you rise."

These verses show that it is the responsibility of the parents to seek to provide a God-centered and Christ-honoring education for their children. Our school exists to assist parents in providing this type of education. We count it a privilege to be able to partner with parents to train kids both academically and spiritually during the time that we have them. We see ourselves as an extension of parents to provide an education in agreement with our statement of faith.

It is not the school’s place to be the primary training center for these children though. The school is to never take the place of home teaching and training. Children need the instruction and example by parents in the home as a foundation on which the school and church may build upon.

The family, church, and school should all have the same goal..."until we all attain to the unity of the faith and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to mature manhood, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ, so that we may no longer be children, tossed to and fro by the waves and carried about by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, by craftiness in deceitful schemes. Rather, speaking the truth in love, we are to grow up in every way into him who is the head, into Christ." (Ephesians 4:13-15)
