WHEREAS, Contractor is willing and desires to be retained by Company to perform various services for the Company Business on the terms, covenants, and conditions set forth below.

NOW, THEREFORE, in consideration of the premises, mutual covenants and agreements herein contained, and other good and valuable consideration, the receipt, adequacy and sufficiency of which are expressly acknowledged, the Parties hereto, intending to be legally bound, agree as follows:

AGREEMENT

1. Services; Compensation

1.1 Services. Subject to the terms of this Agreement, Contractor shall perform the Services for and on the Company’s behalf as identified and set forth in the “Statement of Assignment” or “Assignment” attached hereto and incorporated herein as Schedule 1.1 (such services being defined collectively herein as the “Services”). Any subsequent Statement of Assignment entered into pursuant to this Agreement shall be executed by an authorized Manager of Company and Contractor and automatically become incorporated with and integrated into this Agreement (each a “Statement of Assignment” and collectively, the “Statement of Assignments”). Any conflict or inconsistency between the provisions of this Agreement and any subsequently executed Statement of Assignment shall be resolved by giving precedence to the most recently executed Statement of Assignment under which the Services are to be performed and then to this Agreement. The manner and means by which Contractor chooses to complete the Services are in Contractor’s sole discretion and control. In performing the Services, Contractor shall provide his/her own equipment, tools and other materials at his/her own expense. Contractor shall perform the Services necessary to complete the Services in a timely and professional manner consistent with industry standards, and at a location, place and time, which Contractor deems appropriate. Contractor shall make his/her progress of performing the Services known and immediately available to Company upon Company’s written or electronic request for the same.

1.2 Compensation. In consideration of Contractor’s full performance of the Services, Company shall pay and deliver the specific items of payment described in Schedule 1.2 attached hereto and incorporated herein (defined herein as, the “Fee Compensation”) (the Fee Compensation being defined herein as, the “Compensation”). The Contractor shall submit all required documents after performing each

Assignment (as defined below) for review by Company. Notwithstanding the foregoing, failure to perform the terms and conditions described in the Services shall be a material breach of this Agreement and in the Company's sole discretion may result in termination without Compensation. Company shall have no other Compensation or payment obligations other than as defined by and pursuant to the terms and conditions provided for herein.

2. Parties' Relationship; Taxes

2.1 Independent Contractor. It is the express intention of the Parties that (a) Contractor is an independent contractor; (b) neither Party is an agent, representative, joint venture, or partner of the other Party; (c) neither Party shall have any right, power, or authority to enter into any agreement for or on behalf of, or incur any obligation or liability of, or to otherwise bind, the other Party; and (d) this Agreement shall not be interpreted or construed to create an association, agency, joint venture or partnership between the Parties or to impose any liability attributable to such a relationship upon either of the Parties. Company will not maintain direct supervision or control over the acts of Contractor taken in furtherance of the Services. Therefore, Contractor at all times retains the absolute right to control and perform the Services by his/her own method and manner. Contractor is responsible for transportation to and from any Service and is not acting in the course of the Service during such transportation. Contractor is responsible for carrying his/her own automobile insurance, if driving to and from the Service, and may be asked to provide proof of insurance to Company. Contractor will only receive payment for any Visit and/or any other flat fee agreed upon by both Parties pursuant to the Statement of Assignment, and will not be reimbursed for any additional and extraneous expenses (e.g. transportation and time spent).

2.2 Taxes and Benefits. Company will not treat the Contractor as an employee for any purpose, including but not limited to, the Federal Insurance Contributions Act, the Social Security Act, the Federal Unemployment Act, income tax, workers' compensation, unemployment, insurance, or pension or profit sharing plans. The Contractor shall be solely responsible for, and pay, all self-employment, income, and other taxes due on account of the Contractor's relationship with Company. Contractor agrees to pay all self-employment and other taxes on the Compensation provided to him/her and his/her employees. Contractor will defend, indemnify and hold the Company harmless from and against all claims, damages, losses, and costs and expenses, including reasonable fees and expenses of attorneys and other professionals, relating to any obligation imposed upon the Company to pay any withholding taxes, social security, unemployment or disability insurance, or similar items including, but not limited to labor laws or wage laws, imposed by any applicable local, state or federal governmental agency, in connection with Compensation received by Contractor. Contractor acknowledges that no insurance whatsoever, including Worker's Compensation Insurance has been or will be obtained by the Company on behalf of Contractor or his agents, contractors or employees.

3. Confidentiality

3.1 Definition. "Confidential Information" means any proprietary information, technical data, trade secrets or know-how of the Company, including, but not limited to, research, business plans or models, product plans, products, services, computer software and code, developments, inventions, processes, formulas, technology, designs, drawings, engineering, customer lists and customers (including, but not limited to, customers of the Company on whom Contractor called or with whom Contractor became acquainted during the Term of his performance of the Services), markets, finances or other business information disclosed by the Company either directly or indirectly in writing, orally or by drawings or inspection of parts or equipment. It is understood that said Confidential Information is and will remain the sole property of the Company. Contractor shall take all commercially reasonable precautions to prevent any unauthorized use or disclosure of such Confidential Information. Contractor, his/her servants, agents, and employees shall not use, disseminate or distribute to any person, firm or entity, incorporate, reproduce, modify, reverse engineer, decompile or network any Confidential Information, or any portion thereof, for any purpose, commercial, personal, or otherwise, except as expressly authorized in writing by the Manager then appointed by the Company. Upon completion of the Services, expiration or termination of the Term of this Agreement, or at any time thereafter, Contractor and his/her servants, agents, and employees shall promptly return to the Company, or upon the request of the Company shall destroy or delete, all such tangible and intangible Confidential Information, including, but not limited to, any and all devices, records, data, notes, reports, proposals, lists, correspondence, specifications, drawings blueprints, sketches, materials, equipment, other documents or property, or reproductions of any aforementioned items developed by Contractor pursuant to his/her performance of the Services or otherwise belonging to the Company. Failure to abide by any legal age requirement is a felony and will be prosecuted to the fullest extent of the law. In addition to criminal prosecution for violating 4.2(a)(iii) if applicable, Company reserves the right to collect all current and future lost revenue that resulted due to Contractor's fraudulent activity, including, without limitation, monetary and brand damages in the amount of the greater of One Thousand and 00/100 Dollars ($1,000.00 USD) or actual damages.
