Matthew 19-20
Mark 10, Luke 18

The Story of the Rich Young Ruler

His Question: What lack I yet?

Have you asked the Lord that question?

Another way to ask that:

Come and Follow

It is more about the good than the good

"With God all things are possible"

Compare to the story of Bartimaeus -
A blind man

Rich Young Ruler:

What good thing shall I do?

Bartimaeus: Son of David,

Jesus: What wilt thou that I shall do?

It is less about what we can do and more about what He can

Parable of the Labourers in the Vineyard

Householder:

Vineyard:
The labour:
All day workers:
3rd hour workers:

Lit., 9th hour

11th hour workers:

Who do you think you are?

This is not a parable about justice or fairness...

It is a parable about goodness

What question or situation prompted this parable?

Matthew 20:27-30

To minister,

What does it mean?

How have you seen it?

Matthew 20:24-28

Who do you think you are?

All were needed!!
