Discussion Questions:

1. How is it comforting to know that Jesus led the disciples into this difficult circumstance? What comfort is there when we find ourselves in a difficult circumstance that is the result of sin?
2. Even though we know the “rest of the story” of Jesus and his life, how can you relate to the disciples' first question?
3. What examples are given in the Bible of people who responded with faith to their circumstances?
4. Have you experienced the blend of fear and faith? Can you share a story when faith led you through fear?
5. What about Jesus amazes you the most?
6. Since Jesus won't always calm the storms (circumstances) of life, what is the lesson that we learn from this passage?
