

Dr. Tammara Soma

Short Biography

Dr. Tammara Soma is a food systems expert with extensive knowledge of food policy, food waste and food security issues in both Canada and Indonesia.

She is the Director of Research and the Co-Founder of the Food Systems Lab, a research lab tackling the issue of food waste via social innovation and gamification. She is also the Co-founder of the International Food Loss and Waste Studies Group and a 2014 Pierre Elliott Trudeau Foundation Doctoral Scholar.