

Policy Guideline 01 - Privacy

Introduction

1. U3A [Name of Group] recognises the importance of protecting members' privacy in relation to their personal information.

Purpose

2. The purpose of this policy is to set out members' privacy rights and to document the framework that U3A [Name of Group] will apply when collecting, storing and using members' personal information.

Policy

3. This policy applies to any information collected by U3A [Name of Group] that can be used to identify an individual member. We may collect and record the following types of personal information about members:
 - name
 - postal, street and/or email addresses
 - telephone contact number/s
 - previous profession or occupation
 - skills or interests
 - emergency contact details
 - image (photo or video)
 - other information you provide to us through member surveys or for other purposes.
4. U3A [Name of Group] will collect personal information about each member directly from the member in question. This will be done through membership and course registration processes. Approval to use a member's image/s in U3A [Name of Group] publications will be sought on the Membership Application and Membership Renewal forms; members who decline to permit use of their image will be required to opt out of U3A [Name of Group] photographs. From time to time, other information may be collected via a survey or by other methods.
5. U3A [Name of Group] collects personal information from members so that we can provide services and perform functions that are consistent with our constitution, including:
 - to make classes and other activities available to members
 - for communication, administrative, marketing, and planning purposes
 - for program development, quality control and research purposes
 - to maintain accurate and up-to-date membership records.
6. U3A [Name of Group] will:
 - only collect information that is consistent with our primary purpose and constitution
 - inform members of the reason why information is collected and how it is administered
 - inform members that any personal information held about them is accessible to them
 - take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal information held is accurate and up-to-date
 - take all reasonable steps to ensure that personal information held is protected from misuse, loss and unauthorised access.

7. Members' personal information will not be shared or disclosed other than as described in this policy. Personal information will not be made available to others for direct marketing purposes.
8. U3A [Name of Group] may disclose your personal information, for purposes that are directly relevant to our constitution, to:
 - volunteers, for example, tutors and members of the Committee of Management
 - related organisations, for example, U3A Network Victoria Inc
 - employees, contractors or service providers where it is essential to the service to be provided.
9. As our website is linked to the internet, and the internet is inherently insecure, we cannot provide any assurance regarding the security of transmission of information you communicate to us online and these communications will be at members own risk.

Procedures

10. Members may request access to any personal information U3A [Name of Group] holds about them by contacting U3A [Name of Group]'s Membership Officer who will aim to provide a suitable means of accessing the information.
11. Where a member believes that personal information held about him/her is incomplete or inaccurate the member may ask the Membership Officer to amend it.
12. Where a member believes their privacy has been breached, they should contact U3A [Name of Group]'s Secretary and provide details of the incident so that it can be investigated.
13. Any questions or concerns about this policy, or a complaint regarding the treatment of personal information, should be referred to U3A [Name of Group]'s Secretary.
14. U3A [Name of Group] will treat confidentially all requests or complaints lodged regarding this policy. We will contact you within a reasonable time after receipt of your complaint to discuss your concerns and to outline options regarding how they may be resolved. We will aim to ensure that your complaint is resolved in a timely, impartial and appropriate manner.
