

Born and raised in Cardiff, Rachel studied double bass with Mary Condliffe at the Junior Conservatoire at RWCMD before moving on to the University of Manchester to study Music.

After achieving her degree, Rachel returned to Cardiff and to RWCMD to complete a MA under the tuition of Tyler Shepherd. Since then Rachel has enjoyed a varied and exciting freelance career involving work with WNO, Cardiff Sinfonietta and tours in Europe with a number of different ensembles.

In July 2018, Rachel will start a new role as a PoliceNow Graduate Police Officer with Sussex Police and looks forward to continuing her double bass career alongside this exciting new venture.
