

After few years of playing the violin, Jasiel Peter had a major change of heart and picked up the Double bass (2015). Within two years of studying the bass he received an associate diploma (LTCL) in double bass from Trinity College London. Jasiel is currently doing a post grad diploma programme at Trinity Laban, studying under Leon Bosch. He has been awarded the Trinity College London Scholarship for the year 2015 – 2016, the Billi Newman Scholarship (2016 – 2017) the British Council Great India Scholarship, and Trinity College London Scholarship (2017 – 2018).

