LEADERSHIP STUDIES SEQUENCE

What do you really know about leadership?

The Leadership Studies Sequence is a multi-disciplinary program focusing on the nature of leadership and followership. It is coordinated with the co-curricular activities of its sponsoring organization, the Kravis Leadership Institute at Claremont McKenna College (CMC). The sequence is designed for CMC students interested in pursuing a career involving the scholarly study and/or practice of leadership, who feel that an understanding of leadership would be helpful to them in another career, or who have a causal interest in the subject. Completion of the Sequence will be noted on student transcripts.

Benefits of the Leadership Studies Sequence

- Courses can fulfill both general education and major requirements
- Networking Opportunities
- Special Invitations to closed KLI events
- Access to KLI donors including the KLI Advisory Board and Kravis Fellows
- Priority on KLI internships and funding
- Resume builder
- Talking point to enhance any application for an internship, job, or program
- Understand the meaning of leadership and how our actions impact others

Questions? Contact Professor Ronald Riggio, Leadership Studies Sequence Faculty Advisor rriggio@cmc.edu

Required Courses

The Leadership Sequence only requires five courses, including one required core course and one course selected from four categories. All students must complete at least one course in government and one course in psychology.

- Core Requirement: LEAD 010 CM – Foundations of Leadership
- Ethics Requirement: one course
- Breadth Requirement: one course
- Experiential Requirement: one course
- Leadership Capstone Requirement: one course
Approved Courses in the Leadership Studies Sequence

Foundations of Leadership Studies (Required)
- LEAD 10: Foundations of Leadership Studies

Ethics Requirement (Choose 1)
- ECON 109: Ethics, Economics & Public Policy
- GOVT 80: Introduction to Political Philosophy
- GOVT 128C: Civic Leadership & Ethics in Business, Politics and the Economy
- GOVT 129: Ethics & American Political Leadership
- PHIL 33: Political Philosophy
- PHIL 34: Introduction to Moral & Political Issues
- PHIL 101C/124: Classical Ethical Theory: Aristotle
- PHIL 158: Ethical Theory
- RLST 41: Morality & Religion

Breadth Requirement (Choose 1)
- ECON 198: Independent Study on Innovation Management
- GOVT 105: Organization of Health Care & Public Policy
- GOVT 113: Inequality, Politics & Public Policy
- GOVT 129E: What do universities do? Public Policy & Leadership in Higher Education
- GOVT 114: Philanthropy, Voluntarism, & Not-for-Profits: Law, Public Policy, & Leadership
- GOVT 50: Introduction to Public Administration
- GOVT 102: The American Presidency
- GOVT 120: Environmental Leadership
- GOVT 121: Organization & Management
- GOVT 153: Women Leaders in the Middle East
- GOVT 174c: Special Topics: Politics, Philosophy & War: Xenophon’s Political Philosophy
- ID 150: Nonprofit Leadership:Women&Race
- LEAD41: Leadership in Sports
- LEAD151: Interpersonal Dynamics

Breadth Requirement (Continued)
- HIST 78: Museums & Leadership
- HIST 154: The Makers of Modern India & Pakistan
- HIST 162C: Warring States to the First Emperor
- LIT 114: Politics, Violence, & Early Modern Literature
- PSYC 37: Organizational Psychology
- RLST 176: Visionaries, Prophets, & Transformative Leadership
- SPAN 153: Pol/Soc Leadership in Latin America

Experiential Requirement (Choose 1)
- INT 30: Internship in Economics, Technology or Innovation
- MSL 102A,B: Mil Operations & Leadership IB
- GOVT 30: Internship in Politics (Off-Campus)
- PSYC/INT 199: Summer Internship in Leadership (half credit)
- MSL 103A,B: Intermediate Leadership & Management IA (two semesters)
- MSL 104A,B: Advanced Leadership & Management IA (two semesters)
- PSYC 187: Practicum in Organizational Intervention
- LEAD 40: Practicum in Event Management (half credit)

Leadership Capstone Requirement (Choose 1)
- GOVT 122: Leadership in Management
- PSYC 140: Leadership Seminar
- PSYC 141.1,2: Leading Entrepreneurial Ventures
- PSYC 142: Leadership Development
- PSYC 177: Organizational Communication & Leadership
- LEAD 142: Leading Social Innovation

---

More information about the Kravis Leadership Institute can be found on our website, http://kli.cmc.edu

Kravis Leadership Institute • Claremont McKenna College • 850 Columbia Avenue, Claremont, CA 91711 • 909.621.8743 • Kravis.institute@cmc.edu