         1. VP Jeremiah recommended the advocacy commissioner serve as the co-chair rather than the VP Academic
a. Commissioner Teodora clarified that the roles of co-char and chair are merely symbolic, and the VP academic has more connections with the faculty.

iv. Motion passed unanimously

b. Motion II: Motion to Mandate in the Constitution a General Science Student Survey to be Released Bi-Annually

i. Nagee/Goldrick

ii. The survey questions will vary based on relevant issues of the academic year.

iii. Consistency of questions and unintentional response bias should be considered in the survey response.

iv. Council expressed concern over the delay in releasing the survey.

1. The research and policy committee responded that the delay over the past few years has been due to time taken in construction of the survey and time taken in getting approval by faculty deans.

v. Commissioner Marginean recommended a collaboration with the communication committee to ensure the data collected is then also disseminated properly.

vi. Friendly amendment to Motion II: include “sharing analysis of the survey with the advocacy steering committee” under the roles of the Research and policy committee

vii. Debate

1. Commissioner Marginean spoke against the motion advising that it be revised in light of the knowledge gained from releasing an initial survey.

viii. Motion failed.

c. Motion III: Motion to Mandate in the Constitution that One Policy Paper or Report Must be Released Annually

i. Nagee/Hussain

ii. This motion promotes accountability for the research and policy committee.

iii. By putting a hard deadline, the committee will be mandated to consistently produce reports.

iv. The motion hopes to increase transparency of goals within the science student body and increase student involvement.

v. Commissioner Marginean supported the motion with the suggestion to include specific goals and objectives in the future.

vi. Motion passed.
