Call for Creative Arts Camp Intern

Description

Creative Art Camp (CAC) seeks creative arts counselors to intern for the historic, landmarked parish of Calvary-St. George's Church. CAC seeks interns who are interested in promoting urban-arts programming in Manhattan. The intern hired for this position should pose a desire to promote the arts in an urban setting, enjoy teaching children, and be able to implement curriculum alongside a vibrant and passionate team of artists.

Responsibilities

- Attend three leadership trainings April 15th + May 20th + June 17th
- Lead a CAC class for the week of June 25th-29th from the hours of 3:00 - 6:00 PM
- Email campers throughout the week to encourage attendance and enthusiasm
- Arrive prepared to engage campers, families, and art projects

Requirements

Students applying for this paid internship should be interested in sharing story through arts in an urban environment. Interns should have an appreciation of the arts, enjoy engaging children, and desire experience teaching in an urban environment.
