NCIC WORKSHOP AND SYMPOSIUM

What’s new in cancer? What you need to know.
When: 9am-4pm, August 3rd, 2018
Where: VCCC Level 7, Lecture Theatre A
Register: https://www.cancerandinfections.org/2018workshop/

Opening and Keynote
Chair Prof Monica Slavin, NCIC, RMH and PMCC

Level 7, Lecture theatre C
9:00 Opening: Monica Slavin, Director NCIC
9:30 Keynote: Infectious Complications of CAR T cells, Dr Josh Hill, Fred Hutch

10:30 Break, Level 7 foyer

Workshops: The changing landscape of cancer therapies and implications for ID
Chair Leon Worth, NCIC

Level 7, Lecture theatre C
11:00 HSCT, Dr Eric Wong, Austin Health (changing landscape in transplants) and Dr. Michelle Yong, NCIC (Implications for infections)
11:45 Small molecule inhibitors and targeted Abs, Dr Carrie Van Der Weyden, PMCC (changing landscape in cancer therapies) and Dr Ben Teh, NCIC (Implications for Infections)

12:30 Lunch, Level 7 foyer

Symposium: New directions in cancer and ID.
Chair Dr Gab Haeusler, NCIC

Level 7, Lecture theatre C
1:30 The microbiome: Implications for Infection and Immunity, Prof Geraint Rogers, SAHMRI
2:30 Immune Checkpoint Inhibitors: Distinguishing adverse immune events from Infectious complications, Dr Shahneen Sandu, PMCC
3:00 A new era in cancer therapy: what does it mean for ID? Panel discussion
Panel discussion and close (moderator: Prof Karin Thursky, NCIC and NCAS)
Panellist’s: Monica Slavin, Josh Hill, Leon Worth, Eric Wong, Michelle Yong, Carrie Van Der Weyden, Ben Teh, Gab Haeusler, Shahneen Sandu, Leon Worth, Jason Trubiano, Geraint Rogers.

Sponsored by

GILEAD  MSD  Pfizer