Time Line

As Babylon grew in power king Nebuchadnezzar allowed king Jehoiakim to continue rule in Judah, providing that he pay a yearly tribute. After 3 years Jehoiakim rebelled, Jerusalem fell and Jehoiakim was carried off to Babylon. Nebuchadnezzar then installed Zedekiah as a puppet king. In Zedekiah's 9th year he also rebelled resulting in the end of Israel as a nation and the deportation of the Jews to Babylon.
