Last week, the Library submitted an application for an American Library Association’s Small and & Rural Libraries Grant. Based on the Borough’s population, the Glen Rock Library is considered a small library. Within the first round of awards, up to 650 libraries will be granted $3,000 each. The program is funded by a private donor and the Institute of Museum and Library Services. If awarded, the Library would use the funds to foster awareness-raising about race relations, equal justice, and fair treatment within the community already started with the previous CRAN book discussion. Future discussion, speakers, and activities anticipated. Thank you to Rachel for helping manage the submission.
