7. DIRECTOR’S REPORT:
   ● Ellen O’Keefe reported that the BCCLS’ Friends Breakfast returned to an in-person format after a three year absence and was well attended. She thanked the Board for sponsoring tickets for Theresa, Kristen, Libby and herself.
   ● Music CD’s will be eliminated by the end of 2022. Circulation of this format has dropped significantly in recent years; new purchases were not budgeted in 2022; the shelf space will be reassigned to YA print materials; there has been no patron feedback or complaints.
   ● The upgrade of the telephone/paging system has not progressed since last month. Ellen is awaiting action from the vendor, Tekscape to port the phones, however the hardware and software for the current public address system is incompatible with Tekscape’s system. Ellen hopes a suggested solution is forthcoming; currently only one phone line is available. Matt Jacobs will discuss this with Ellen.
   ● The Library has received its State Aid check in the amount of $6,248; the annual audit has been completed; copies of the audit report are available in the Trustee’s folders.
   ● Ellen, Dan Lesso, and Mary Ellen Puzen from the Finance Committee will meet on November 17 to prepare the 2023 Budget.

11. FOR DISCUSSION:
    a. Library renovations funding:
Mayor Kristine Morieko joined the meeting via Zoom and was updated on the status of the stained ceiling tiles on the main floor as observed before the start of the meeting. This damage is attributed to a recent heavy rain.

Jeff Schlecht submitted a draft project description of maintenance needed to the addition and alterations of the building and the dates in which the renovations were completed. The vision of the overall improvements is composed of four separate projects: roof replacement, HVAC replacement, interior alterations for space needs, and replacement of the lift with an ADA compliant elevator. He estimates the needed funding at $250,000.

Rachel Feinmark introduced the need for a two-pronged approach to seeking funding: a capital campaign and a bond from the Borough. Rachel, Kathleen Walter, and Matt Jacobs will seek to have a brainstorming session with Georgene Betterbed and Robert VanLangen who chaired the previous Capital Campaign to determine what is necessary to move forward.

Mayor Kristine Morieko requested a presentation of Jeff Schlecht’s project proposal at the December 14 work session of the Mayor and Council to request emergency action on the needed roof repairs or consideration of a full replacement.

Ellen O’Keefe requested permission to have a tarp installed over the roof as an immediate stop gap method for reducing water damage and to convey the need for immediate action.

12. FOR ACTION:
   a. Salary adjustment for three part-time Library Assistants:
      Kathleen Walter moved to increase the salaries of three part-time Library Assistants hired at the Glen Rock Public Library in 2022 from $13.50 per hour to $14.38 per hour (with no retroactive payment) effective November 14, 2022. These adjustments are being made in general as a result of the next increase in the NJ Minimum Wage Law scheduled to take effect on 1/1/2023. These hourly wage adjustments will be in addition to any future increases set forth in the parties’ Collective Bargaining Agreements for calendar years 2023 and 2024. Only those three part-time employees whose hourly wage is adjusted from their original rate as set forth above will receive this increase. All other employees will only receive increases in strict compliance with the parties’ Collective Bargaining Agreements running from January 1, 2022 through December 31, 2024. Second: Matt Jacobs. Motion carried with the following roll call vote: 6 yes, 0 no, 0 abstentions.

Chair designs were reviewed with interest in three models; all agreed they wanted to see samples before deciding.

15. NEW BUSINESS:
   ● Rachel Feinmark announced that the Nominating Committee should present a slate at the December meeting of trustees for the following year since two terms are ending.
   ● Mayor Morieko provided the correct dates that terms end for the current trustees: Rachel Feinmark, 2026; Matt Jacobs, 2022; Daniel Lesso 2023; Kathleen Walter, 2024; Christa Folco, 2023; Maggie Jacoby, 2023; Jeffrey Schlecht, 2022.
