5. PUBLIC COMMENTS: none

6. CORRESPONDENCE: none
7. DIRECTOR’S REPORT:
   - Ellen O’Keefe introduced Kathy Collins Simmons, the new Business Manager who began her position on March 1.
   - Ellen announced job postings for two additional staff members: a part-time Children’s Assistant to replace one who recently resigned and a Sunday Librarian to cover shifts between April and June.
   - Ellen is working with Maggie Jacoby on a National Week of Conversation event to be held on Monday, April 17 at 7:00 pm. This year’s community discussion will focus on immigration and will follow the guidelines provided by the National Issues Forums.
   - Another program, “Aging Unbound” will be held on Sunday, May 2 at 2 pm as part of National Older Americans Month to be recognized in May. Jill Orloff is assisting Ellen with soliciting digital photos of Seniors as they appeared “around town” from the past or present for incorporation into a slideshow to be previewed at an Open House and on display in the Library. It was agreed that a limit of two favorite photographs would be accepted. Georgene Betterbed requested that any materials acquired for this event be turned over to the Glen Rock Historical and Preservation Society at its conclusion.
   - Ellen reported that the roof continues to remain quiet with no additional leaking reported; the telephone situation is moving closer toward resolution.
   - The mobile tables and chairs have been ordered and Ed Silver was very happy to be informed of this development.

8. TREASURER’S REPORT/MARCH BILLS TO BE PAID:
   - Jill Orloff, the Mayor’s Alternate, administered the Oath of Office to Lisa Tomaselli, Superintendent’s Alternate for a one year term.
   - The Treasurer’s Report was accepted by consent as distributed. It will be filed for audit.
   - Lisa Tomaselli moved to pay the March bills as presented. Second: Maggie Jacoby. Motion carried.

9. REPORT FROM THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY:
   - Georgene Betterbed read the Friends report which was submitted by Joyce Stein.
   - The Readathon began on March 1 and will continue through March 28. It is ending three days before the end of the month because of Spring break. Sign ups can be completed through the Friends’ website. It was noted that the shorter duration may affect the nightly reading goals that some participants may set.
   - Letters for the annual membership drive have gone out and a number of responses have been received.
• The Friends will sponsor a book sale in May featuring children’s, young adult, and current/popular fiction. Details for accepting donations and the time and date of the sale will be posted on the Library and Friends’ websites.
• The Friends are working on hosting a wine tasting in November before the holidays and more information will be forthcoming as it develops.
• A wonderful exhibit with the work of photographer Daniel Perry was hosted in the Gallery in February. A reception with the artist was a great success and many of his works were sold. His father, Walter Perry was very generous to this town.
• Georgene announced that a possible children’s program with Anna Kang and illustrator Christopher Weyant is in development. They are Glen Rock residents and received the Theodor Seuss Geisel Award in 2015.
