

Imagining a Different Future: Overcoming Barriers to Climate Justice

Hobart, Tasmania 8-10 February, 2018

DRAFT PROGRAMME BY THEMES

(Please note this list refers only to main presenters and titles. Keynote speakers are in bold. Additional speakers, co-authors, etc. will be listed in the future, along with Panel details, the schedule for the 2.5 days, and the Arts, and Community Events.)

Theme 1 (Keynotes in bold)	Climate Justice (world views, justice & ethics)	Institution
Democracy and climate justice: never the twain shall meet?	Robyn Eckersley	University of Melbourne
Climate justice beyond burden sharing"	Steve Vanderheiden	University of Colorado at Boulder
Climate Change: against Despair	Catriona McKinnon	University of Reading
TBA	Marcus Düwell	University of Utrecht
Neoliberalism, climate justice and non-human Capabilities	Rosemary Lyster	University of Sydney
Justice and Climate Transitions	Jeremy Moss	University of New South Wales
Corruption and climate change, an institutional approach	Liesbeth Feikema	Utrecht University
Can There Be an Ethics for the Anthropocene?	Clive Hamilton	Charles Sturt University
The Intersection of Environmental, Climate, and Food Justice	Joan McGregor	Arizona State University
Emerging Economies, Dwindling Differentiation and Elusive Climate Justice	Patricia Galvao	University of Windsor
Laudato Si': a case for action or wasted opportunity?	Neil Ormerod	Australian Catholic University

Theme 2. Barriers:	Science, Governance, Equity	Institution
Changing Oceans and Cryosphere: assessments by the IPCC	Nathan Bindoff	Antarctic Climate and Ecosystems Cooperative Research Centre, Hobart
Attributing Responsibility for Extreme Weather Events	Richard Corry	University of Tasmania
Two Epistemic Errors of Many Climate Change Sceptics	David Coady	University of Tasmania
Fair Shares: a civil society approach to climate equity	Sivan Kartha	Stockholm Environment Institute
Fairness in climate adaptation law	Jan McDonald	University of Tasmania
Do equity debates function as an enabler to climate action or a barrier?	Kate Dooley	University of Melbourne
The Ethical and Legal Implications of Securitizing Global Climate Policy	Shirley Scott	University of New South Wales
Just Adaptation: Public Engagement and Capabilities in Adaptation Planning	David Schlosberg	University of Sydney
Acceptable Pollution and Unacceptable Pollution: Do Burdened Societies owe Strong Climate Obligations to their Own Citizens?	Thierry Ngosso	University of St. Gallen
What is the Point of International Environmental Law in the Anthropocene?	Tim Stephens	University of Sydney
The problem of intergenerational responsibility: imagining the future from the perspective ecosophic of Arne Naess	Jeyver Rodríguez Baños	Pontifical Catholic University of Chile
Surveillance, Security and Climate Activism	Peter Burdon	University of Adelaide
TBA	Peter Christoff	University of Melbourne
Polanyi, Neoliberalism and Climate Change'	Jeff McGee	University of Tasmania/IMAS

Theme 2.4, Arts Activism, Learning	Saturday Programme	Institution
The Tasmanian Arts and Activism Project	TBA	University of Tasmania
Title: Right brain dreaming: Culture, climate, change	Guy Abrams	CEO and Co-founder of CLIMARTE
Close to Home: a photographic investigation of a local landscape	Marion Marrison	University of Tasmania
The Art of Negotiation; The Negotiation of Art	Jan Hogan	University of Tasmania
Artist's Talk	Antonia Aitken	University of Tasmania
Strange Changers: Art, Faith and Activism	Ian Paulin	University of Tasmania
TBA	Owen Tilbury	Co-founder of Breathe of Fresh Air Film Festival

Theme 3: Strategies for Making a Difference	Keynotes in Bold
Divesting from Fossil Fuels: A Useful Strategy for Climate Justice?	Ben Richardson	University of Tasmania
A Global Environmental Constitution and the Achievement of Socio-Ecological Justice in the Anthropocene	Louis Kotzé	North-West University
Five Australia's: What role have media played in polarising views on Climate Change in Australia?	David Holmes	Monash University
Supporting a just transition: national responsibilities for the cross-border impacts of climate policies	Jonathan Pickering	University of Canberra
Corporate Climate Justice?	Anita Foerster	University of Melbourne
Dealing with floods in Australia: resilience, risk and politics.	Philippa England	Griffith University
The Adani Carmichael coal mine conflict: in court and in media	Cynthia Nixon	University of Tasmania
TBA	Mel Fitzpatrick
Beyond reason: activism and law in a time of climate change	Nicole Rogers	Southern Cross University
Climate Justice through the Courts?	Margaretha Wewerinke-Singh	University of the South Pacific

Lessons for a different future from local government	Edith Peters	Australian National University
Civil strategies for future generations	Trevor Daya-Winterbottom	University of Waikato
Imagery and climate politics: how is the climate movement using imagery to shape the climate debate?	Don McArthur	Monash University
Pivotal players: Pacific islands and the end of the fossil fuel era	Wesley Morgan	University of the South Pacific
Reconfiguring of the Role of Cities in the Global Pursuit of Socially Just and Climate Resilient Communities	Anel Du Plessis	North-West University
Understanding unconcern about climate change	Chloe Lucas	University of Tasmania
Can “Governing Through Goals” Advance Climate Justice or International Environmental Governance?	Michelle Lim	University Of Adelaide
Renewables as climate strategy: generating power from energy	Dan Cass	The Australia Institute
Baseline assumptions: How this one old trick makes billions of emissions disappear	Sean Ryan	Environmental Defenders Office
Spatializing climate justice: the practice and possibility of climate activism in the Asia Pacific	Sara Fuller	Macquarie University
Social Justice as environmental justice : the unveiling of environmental laws in Malawi post-Paris	Patrick Mphatso Chinguwo	University of Malawi
In Dubio Pro Natura as An Principle on Climate Litigation: Future and Challenges	Hari Prasetyo	Universitas Indonesia
Energy Transitions, Fossil Fuel Subsidies and International Law	Margaret Young	University of Melbourne
Community energy solutions for a just energy transition in Australia	Franziska Mey	Community Power Agency, Institute for Sustainable Futures
Ecocivilization and international environmental law	Ben Boer	University of Sydney
What role have media played in polarising views on Climate Change in Australia?	David Holmes	Monash University
Climate Change Criminals and Climate Justice	Rob White	University of Tasmania

Imagining Justice through Restoration: International law in an era of Ecological Restoration.	Afshin Akhtar-Khavari	Queensland University of Technology
The Political Economy of Climate Justice: Tetranormalisation All the Way Down	Fred Gale	University of Tasmania
Deconstructing Presumption of Urban Preference	Widney Brown
The Most Good We Can Do or The Best Person We Can Be? Effective Altruism, Climate Change.	Michel Bourban	University of Lausanne
Human rights approaches to climate change – can they live up to their potential?	Bridgid Lewis	Queensland University Of Technology
Climate justice: Understanding human rights as moral rights	Hugh Breakey	Griffith University
TBA	Thea Omerod	Aust.Religious Response to Climate Change

PANELS

Climate Intervention: the Next Frontier of Climate Change Policy?	Jeff McGee (chair)	Other speakers from above theme lists TBA; Kerry Brent (UTas), Aylin Tofighi (IMAS), Michel Bourban (Lausanne)
Human Rights	Hugh Breakey (chair)	TBA
Climate Litigation	Jaqueline Peel, University of Melbourne (chair)	TBA
TBA		