Larry Stybel

Focus:

Calm Assertive Leadership | Work Groups, Teams & Fikkas: Understanding the Differences and Structuring for Results | How to grow your institution without destroying what made it great in the first place.

Education:

Ed.D., Psychology - Harvard University
M.A., Psychology - The University of Texas at Austin
B.A., Psychology - City College of New York

Background:

Larry Stybel is a licensed doctoral level psychologist, co-founder of two companies, regular contributor to PSYCHOLOGY TODAY, keynote speaker, and Leadership Instructor at Northeastern University. Larry and his partner

Maryanne Peabody are co-authors of "Navigating the Waterfall", a book focusing on leadership and career management in the 21st Century.

Larry was previously a consultant with Hay Associates, now part of Korn/Ferry. His role focused on executive compensation and psychological assessment of leadership potential in Fortune 500 companies.

In addition to Stybel Peabody's 1:1 consultation on leadership and career management, they run the following invitation-only communities: Seat at the Table (for Board members and CEOs of public and private for profit companies), the CHRO Breakfast Club, The COO Forum of Boston, and the Chief Medical Officer Dinner Club.

In 2017 the Marquis Who's Who Publications Board named Larry Stybel winner of its Albert Nelson Marquis Lifetime Achievement Award. This Award recognizes Larry's "lasting contributions to the field of leadership." Larry is listed in Marquis' WHO'S WHO IN BUSINESS & FINANCE and Marquis' WHO'S WHO IN AMERICA.

In 2010 the Institute for Career Certification International designated Larry one of the world's 214 Career Management Fellows.
