Background:

Maria Gamb is the Founder and CEO of the training company NMS Communications focusing on creating powerful leadership and happy, healthy, resilient organizations that thrive. As a former Executive, she spent more than twenty years in corporate America directing and managing successful businesses valued in excess of $100 million. Her global experiences lead her to write the Amazon bestselling book "Healing the Corporate World", one of the few women to rank in the top 10 of the business leadership category. In 2018 her second book, "Values-Based Leadership for Dummies"™ was published by John Wiley & Sons. To date this book has been released in the United States, Canada and the UK.

Direct, to the point, with a healthy dose of humor: Maria is a sought-after speaker, consultant, trainer and retreat leader on the topics of women in leadership, value-based leadership, gender and team communication dynamics. Her work is based in soft skills blended with proven scientific studies creating a template for personal and professional resiliency. Consistent in her philosophy, stating "there isn't a line between spirituality and science, it is all one in the same being viewed through different prisms. They are complimentary." Maria brings a fresh practical take to building success to women.

She has worked with executives and groups from Capital One, Oppenheimer Funds, the Jamaican Government, Raymond James, Astra Zeneca, Mid-Atlantic Permanente, Kronos Incorporated, Women's Health Business Association and Women's MBA International. She is a favorite speaker at the Women in Leadership and Business Conference in Canada, participating by invitation for 6 years.

Maria has been a contributor to Forbes WomensMedia since 2010. She has been featured in Inc. Magazine, Time Magazine, Wall Street Radio Network. She is a member of the Women's MBA International (WMBAI) association and the United Nations Association of New York (UNA – NY).

Nicknamed "Gypsy" by her family, she's spent most of her adult life travelling; seeking adventure and working in various different countries. Her favorite adventure; swimming with sharks and seals in the Galapagos Islands. Favorite big cities: Florence and Paris are tied. Failed adventures: learning to surf and sky dive in Australia. But it was worth the try. Maria lives in Brooklyn, NY with her charming husband and three rambunctious cats.
