Background:

When you need the right message, Carole delivers. When you need a speaker who will deliver high energy programs while inspiring and entertaining your audience at the same time, count on Carole Copeland Thomas. As a veteran keynote speaker, trainer, facilitator, emcee, and workshop leader Carole customizes every message so that her audience leaves with a new understanding of their personal and professional course of action. From a handful to thousands, Carole's message will radiate with audiences large or small. She constantly researches her topics through books, surveys, articles and the Internet, guaranteeing that her materials represent the latest trends in the marketplace.

As a speaker, trainer, global thought leader, and business owner since 1987, Carole Copeland Thomas moderates the discussions of key issues affecting our global marketplace. She has her pulse on the issues affecting working professionals and consults with industry leaders on a regular basis. From speaking at the Federal Highway Administration, SHRM, TJX Companies, Verizon, Cargill, and Monster Worldwide to interviewing experts around the globe, Carole knows how to analyze the dynamics of a changing marketplace. Carole served as an adjunct faculty member for Bentley University for a decade, and has spoken throughout the United States, London, England, Canada, India, El Salvador, Australia, South Africa, and Kenya. She co-founded a non-profit international organization with nine other women as a result of a 2005 trip to Kenya. The group returned to Kenya in November 2007 for humanitarian projects and to host their first International Conference in Mombasa, Kenya. Carole is the founder of the Multicultural Symposium Series, a multiyear conference and online initiative developed for the advancement of multicultural issues. Carole is a blogger and social media enthusiast using various technology platforms to enhance her business development activities.

Carole is the host of the talk show "Focus On Empowerment" heard weekly on Blog Talk Radio, one of the largest internet based platforms in the US. She has been a radio personality for 18 years and delivered live broadcasts during the September 11th terrorist attacks. Carole is the Past President of the National Speakers Association New England Chapter. She has been a NSA Member for 21 years.
