Role Purpose:

To lead and execute an integrated program, meant to address vulnerabilities of 3000 pahadiya Households – a Particularly Vulnerable Tribal Groups (PVTGS) - in two blocks of Jharkhand with a view to improve their livelihood, nutritional intake and access to social security schemes through building community collectives. The project is being supported by OAK foundation and implemented by Traidcraft Exchange, SATHEE & Badlao Foundation.

Role Aims:

- To lead the planning, coordination and on ground execution of the program activities in collaboration with core team of experts, local partner organisations and Traidcraft management team.
- To lead value chain related work stream and create efficient supply chains (procurement centres, value addition, packaging etc.) for farmer producer companies and develop robust market linkage.
- Establish strategic partnership with government departments, nodal agencies, financial institutions & private actors to be able to ensure programmatic collaboration for the successful delivery of the program.
- To develop actionable annual, quarterly and monthly plans for the teams and partners to execute the project activities in close coordination and synergy.
- To monitor and keep regular updation of project MIS including program budgets, annual reports and other necessary documentation.
- To manage team goals & expectations and maintain high degree of motivation and harmony.
- To work in close coordination with supply chain specialist.
- To continually seek and act upon opportunities for personal and team development.
- To carry out other duties, which may or may not be related to the job, as reasonably requested by management.

Person Specification:

You will be:

- A self-driven professional having demonstrated ability of leading a team and implementing successful projects/programs related to promoting collectives/FPOs, livelihood, sustainable agriculture & similar areas. The incumbent should possess skills & relevant experience in business development, managing partnerships, input & market linkage & engaging with a range of stakeholders.

You will have:

- Proven experience in handling team and leading a project engaging diverse stakeholders.
- Strong project management skill to coordinate with programme team for planning, implementation & monitoring of project related functions.
- Strong interpersonal & team management skill & ability to coordinate with different stakeholders & market actors.
- Excellent oral and written communication skills with advanced analytical and problem solving skills.
- Entrepreneurial mindset in developing supply chains, producer collectives, market linkage, women’s economic development, and related areas.
- Experience of working with companies (private and/or public), CSOs, private sector partnerships and a range of market players.
- Willingness to travel extensively as required by the nature of project work.

You may have:

- A graduate (or recognized equivalent) qualification in Economics, Rural Management, Agriculture/Agriben- business, international development or other relevant discipline.
- 5-7 years of experience in working with large national/international NGO’s, professional advisory/consulting firm with proven expertise in developing FPOs & other form of collectives.
- Experience in developing high quality presentations, concept notes and proposals will be an added advantage.

Other:

Responsibility for day to day management and oversight of all aspects of Traidcraft Services India Private Limited.