Community Engagement 2018

- Two Community Engagement events held in South Bucks / Chilterns: Denham and Great Missenden.
- Presentations given at public meetings – Coleshill and River Chess Association.
- Attendance / updates at Parish Council meetings.
- Resident 'Drop ins' to start in 2018.
- Working with Arc Theatre to deliver Playing it Safe – an interactive health and safety workshop.

Online

HS2 has partnered with Commonplace to provide a locally focused website.

This is currently being updated with content but you can still visit the site / sign up:

<https://hs2inbucksandoxfordshire.commonplace.is>

The HS2 corporate website - <https://www.hs2.org.uk> is in testing and we are keen for feedback. There is a link on the site to give comments. Alternatively you can email comments to online@hs2.org.uk

Community Funds

Community and Environment Fund (CEF) & Business and Local Economy Fund (BLEF)

The administration of these funds is managed on behalf of HS2 by the charity Groundwork.

For more information visit: www.groundwork.org.uk/Sites/hs2funds Or contact Groundwork by telephone 0121 237 5880 or by email at HS2funds@groundwork.org.uk

- The Funds have a combined value of £40 million.
- There are over 300 CEF and BLEF applications currently in progress from along the line of route.
- Example: Announcement of a £450,000 grant to Wendover Woods for a new woodland hub with an adventure trail, café and parking.
