

EXPEDIA CARES VIDEO TRANSCRIPT

(Read by VO)

Why do we travel?

To see the stunning wonders of the world?

To walk in the footsteps of history?

To celebrate the endless diversity of places and people on our planet?

At Expedia, we see travel as all of these—and more

At its best, travel is an act of purposeful humanity: A journey to unfamiliar places to discover, understand, and connect with people and cultures different from our own.

A journey of discovery that changes us. And, over time, changes the world we live in.

Travel can – and should be – a global force for social good. Lifting economies. Improving lives. And building human bonds that bring the world closer together, one experience at a time.

That's why Expedia Cares is aligning its corporate social responsibility efforts with the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals, ranging from Clean Water and Sanitation, to Quality Education, to Gender Equality.

At Expedia, we love travel. It's not just what we do, it's who we are as a company. And when you're out there seeing the beauty of the world, you can't help but see the needs.

We need to be a force for change, to create a more compassionate, peaceful, and just planet.

We don't think about this as charity. We see it as our responsibility as a leading, global travel company.

It's why we exist. And it's why Expedia cares.
