

Member of the Associated Press

THE DAILY SENTINEL

Sitka Alaska 30°

Thursday, September 9, 1982

These Canadian geese signal the beginning of fall as they fly near Peril Strait.

Reagan Gives In A Little In Effort to Protect Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration is attempting to make the presidential veto stick on a $1.1 billion money bill, agreed to on Wednesday that will keep alive a community service job program for the elderly, sources said.

Court Asked To Overturn Seat Belt Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration asked the Supreme Court Wednesday to overturn an order requiring automakers to equip all new cars with automatic passenger restraint seats.

Arabs Agree to Plan for Mideast

By The Associated Press A summit meeting of Arab leaders adopted a Mideast peace plan today, but Israel dismissed the proposal as meaningless.

Argentina Asks for Help In Paying Foreign Lenders

By OWEN ILLMAN Associated Press Writer TORONTO (AP) — Argentina, following the lead of financially strapped Mexico, has asked the International Monetary Fund for emergency help in paying its debts, the IMF disclosed today.

Detectives Probe Deaths, Fire Aboard Fishing Boat

KEETCHIKAN (AP) — Flames broke out again and delayed the search for more victims until Wednesday afternoon.

Swiss Riot Police Rescue Hostages, Capture Poles

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — Swiss Justice Minister Kurt Furgler said the four gunmen, who claimed they would blow up the embassy Friday unless their conditions were met, also had demanded $1 million and free passage to China or Albania.

Private Rocket Makes Flight

MATAGORDA ISLAND, Texas (AP) — Cosmo 1 blasted off from this isolated island today, becoming the first privately financed spacecraft launched in the United States.

Grand Jury Indicts Sitkan

A Sitka grand jury has indicted David Whelan on five counts of burglary and sexual assault.

Union Vote Falls

JUNEAU (AP) — One Alaska public employees' union has failed in its bid to win over members from another union.

Forecast

Rain Friday, southeast winds to 29 mph. Highs in the upper 60s, lows in the upper 40s. Outside periods of rain.

New Chief Lists Plans for Sitka Police Dept.

By BETSY LONGENBAUGH Sentinel Staff Writer "I have a lot of plans and a lot of ideas," Sitka's new police chief told the Chamber of Commerce at its regular lunch meeting Wednesday.

Reagan Gives In A Little In Effort to Protect Veto

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration is attempting to make the presidential veto stick on a $1.1 billion money bill, agreed to on Wednesday that will keep alive a community service job program for the elderly, sources said.

Court Asked To Overturn Seat Belt Rule

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Reagan administration asked the Supreme Court Wednesday to overturn an order requiring automakers to equip all new cars with automatic passenger restraint seats.

Arabs Agree to Plan for Mideast

By The Associated Press A summit meeting of Arab leaders adopted a Mideast peace plan today, but Israel dismissed the proposal as meaningless.

Argentina Asks for Help In Paying Foreign Lenders

By OWEN ILLMAN Associated Press Writer TORONTO (AP) — Argentina, following the lead of financially strapped Mexico, has asked the International Monetary Fund for emergency help in paying its debts, the IMF disclosed today.

Detectives Probe Deaths, Fire Aboard Fishing Boat

KEETCHIKAN (AP) — Flames broke out again and delayed the search for more victims until Wednesday afternoon.

Swiss Riot Police Rescue Hostages, Capture Poles

BERN, Switzerland (AP) — Swiss Justice Minister Kurt Furgler said the four gunmen, who claimed they would blow up the embassy Friday unless their conditions were met, also had demanded $1 million and free passage to China or Albania.

Private Rocket Makes Flight

MATAGORDA ISLAND, Texas (AP) — Cosmo 1 blasted off from this isolated island today, becoming the first privately financed spacecraft launched in the United States.

Grand Jury Indicts Sitkan

A Sitka grand jury has indicted David Whelan on five counts of burglary and sexual assault.

Union Vote Falls

JUNEAU (AP) — One Alaska public employees' union has failed in its bid to win over members from another union.

Forecast

Rain Friday, southeast winds to 29 mph. Highs in the upper 60s, lows in the upper 40s. Outside periods of rain.