

B2 · FRIDAY · JANUARY 23, 2009

LOCAL NEWS

THE NEWS TRIBUNE.COM

FROM OUR READERS

APPLAUSE

Wednesday night, I shared a very poignant experience with a room full of mostly strangers...

I was overwhelmed listening to his story and saw others - young and old black and white - share the same feeling...

JOYCE FAXER

To Anne Appleton and Open Takeovers, who on the 10th of January...

THE NEWSROOM

READER REPRESENTATIVE

If you have questions or comments about the paper, our reader representative will be happy to talk with you...

Send e-mail to readerrepresentative@news-tribune.com...

STORY SUGGESTIONS

Do you have a news tip or an idea for a story you would like to see at issue in your community...

JOIN OUR NEWS MEETING

Our main news meetings are held weekdays at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. and are open to the public...

LOCAL NEWS EDITORS

Hunter George, assistant managing editor for news...

COMMUNITIES TEAM

COLE AND BEADING NEWS TEAM

PUBLIC LIFE TEAM

WASHINGTON DAILY GAME

LOTTERY

WASH STATE DAILY GAME

MT 5 (Jan. 23)

LOTTO (Jan. 23)

MEGA MILLIONS (Jan. 23)

OREGON MEGALUCKS (Jan. 23)

POWERBALL (Jan. 23)

POWERBALL 21

POWERBALL 525 million

Girl's 1999 disappearance stays a mystery

Treliak's family will hold a candlelight vigil at 7 tonight in the parking lot of the former bowling alley at 4728 S. Center St.

The investigation into Treliak's disappearance remains ongoing. Last year police released new photos and video of the child taken shortly before she disappeared.

Tacoma police encourage anyone with information about Treliak's disappearance to call Tacoma 253-599-5999.

Treliak's family will hold a candlelight vigil at 7 tonight in the parking lot of the former bowling alley at 4728 S. Center St.

Lawyer wants evidence saved in Dome death

Sebastian Henry was killed and a man injured during the Monster Jam show held Friday at the Dome.

Bill Eastering, senior operations director for Field Motor Sports, was over the investigation of the track's driver train.

In his letter, Moore asks specifically to preserve the vehicle, parts from the vehicle inspection and maintenance records, photos and video footage of the event.

The city doesn't have possession of the vehicle, nor does it have inspection or maintenance records for the vehicle.

IN BRIEF

LAKESWOOD Two families left homeless after candle set off fire

Police on Jan. 21 at 11 p.m. Thursday investigated a candle that started a blaze inside a Lakeswood duplex.

FORT LEWIS Soldier killed in Fort Lewis crash

A soldier who was killed in a car crash at Fort Lewis over the weekend was identified Thursday as 22-year-old Pvt. Nicholas Alberto Sanchez of Tyler, Texas.

PROPERTY TAX relief available to those with weather damage

The Washington State Department of Revenue says property tax relief is available to property owners whose homes are damaged in recent storms or floods.

TACOMA Annie Wright School will hold open house Saturday

An open house is scheduled from 1 to 3 p.m. Saturday at Annie Wright School, 827 N. Tacoma Ave.

CARAVAN

Embarkment, a paratrooper, was in Guatemala on a mission with Healing the Children in 1999 after the country's six-year civil war.

While he was there, he talked to local volunteer firefighters and discovered how much the national fire department needed.

Embarkment, a paratrooper, was in Guatemala on a mission with Healing the Children in 1999 after the country's six-year civil war.

Embarkment, a paratrooper, was in Guatemala on a mission with Healing the Children in 1999 after the country's six-year civil war.

Tacoma Mayor Harry P. Cain greets violinist Viola Wasterlain at Union Station in January 1941. The Tacoma virtuoso returned from a White House performance for the Roosevelt family at the Temple Theater. The man at left is believed to be accompanist Latio Bartel, and the woman is believed to be the artist's mother, Fernanda Wasterlain-Arntel. The man at right was unidentified.

LOOKING BACK

A SCOTT SCENE HISTORY THROUGH WORDS AND PICTURES

100 YEARS AGO TODAY JAN. 21, 1909

10 YEARS AGO TODAY JAN. 23, 1999

25 YEARS AGO TODAY JAN. 23, 1984

The U.S. Justice Department may challenge federal judge Jack Tanner's landmark decision in the so-called comparable work case, contending the ruling could set a "dangerous" precedent.