MALLORY LAKE

A tribute

RITUAL PROVIDED STRUCTURE FOR MALLORY AS SHE CREATED HER unique world of light and shadows, poetry and reality, mystery and invitation.

Sue discovered her art at the Southern Vermont Art Center and called well before email or text to say that she had seen some very engaging pastels. We reached out to her and from 1990 on would welcome each new body of work for 9 exhibitions.

Now, we mount this exhibition as a tribute to her talent and her spirit.

Mallory worked consistently and carefully as she continued to expand her world of favorite places and objects but her Italy remained deeply embedded in her spirit and heart.

The light and feel of Italy energized her and encouraged and challenged her to the next work and the next work. The visual “flavor” of Italia pervaded her art.

Mallory’s ordered work and fine taste fueled her creative spirit as her Bob supported and adored her. Together they fashioned a home and a life of shared delights and quiet passions.

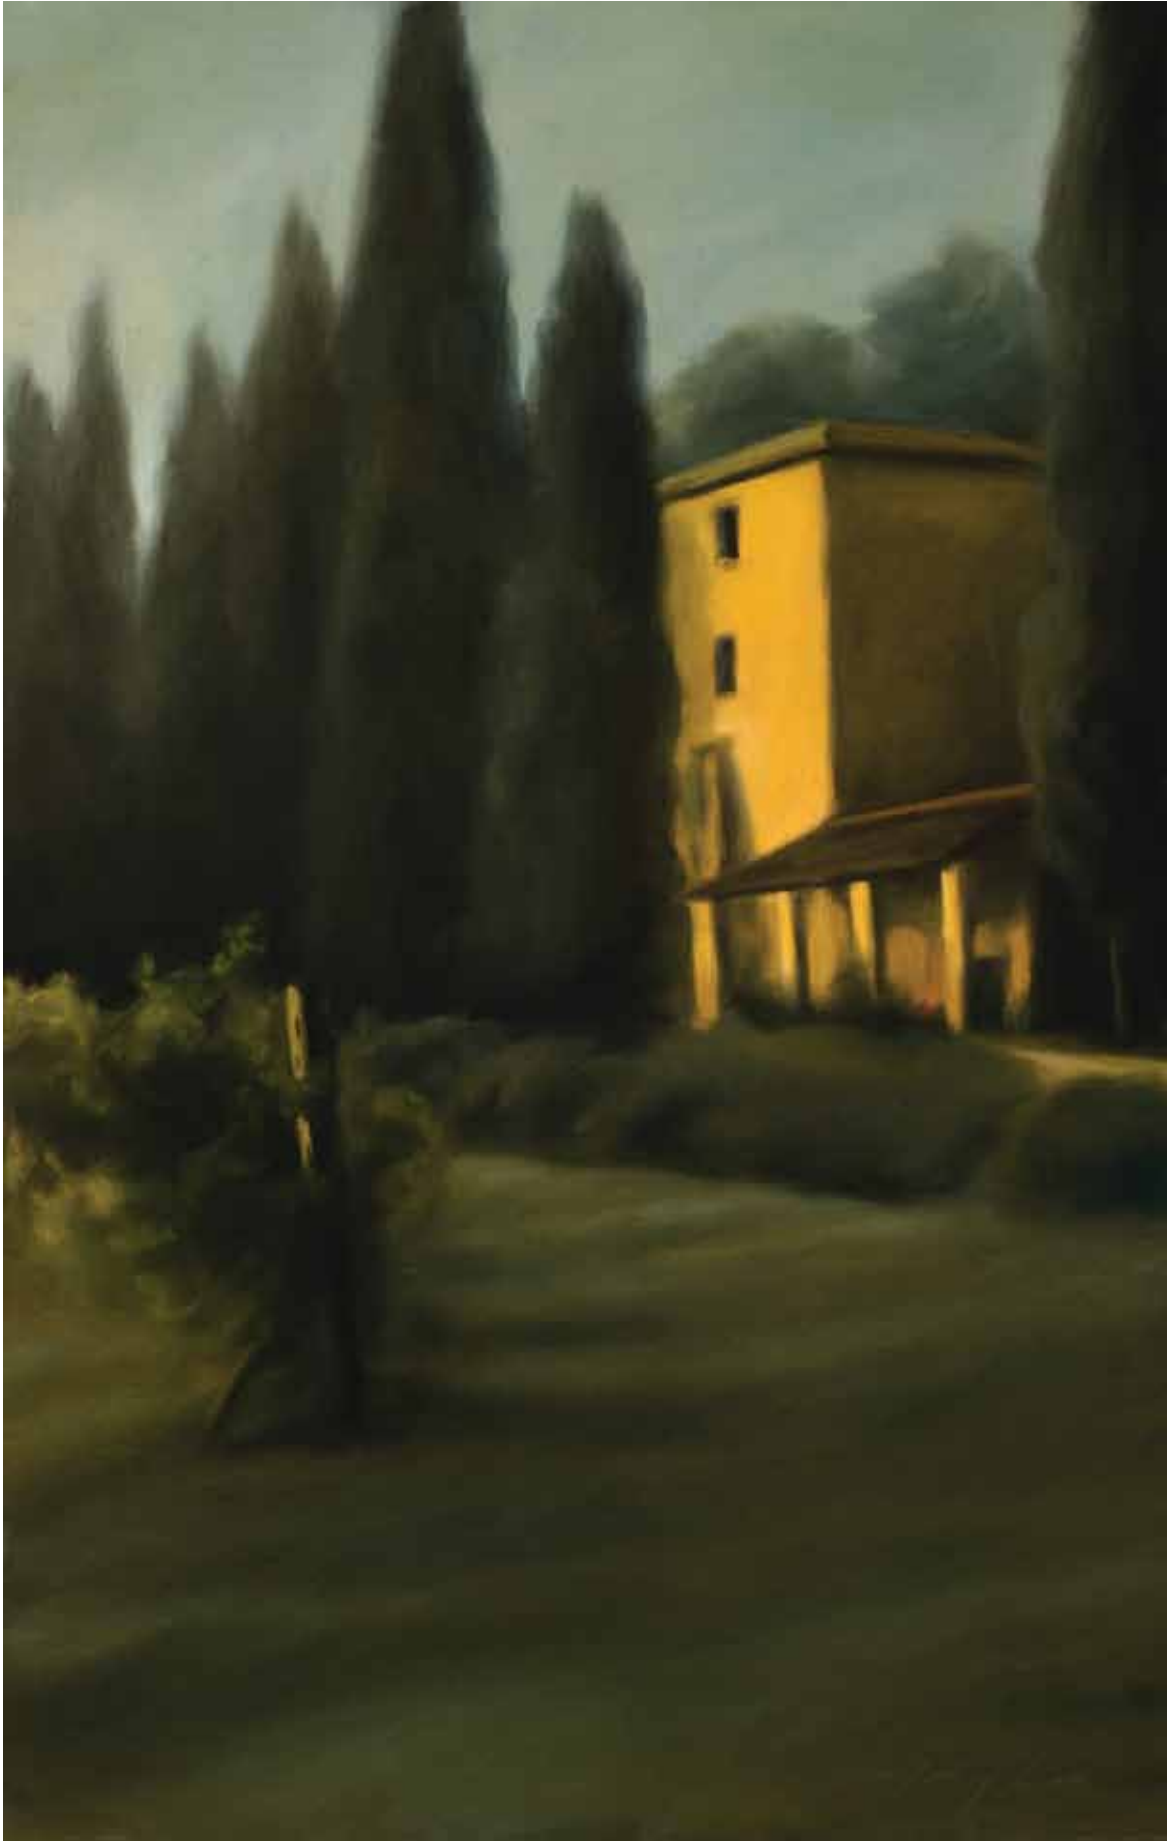

As the curtain of life has closed on Mallory, her art and her gentle and determined spirit live on in each of her pastels. We have tried to share a rich collection of her art so that old and new eyes will be both astonished and enriched.

Arrivederci and blessings.

MALLORY LAKE

1950—2017

ALTHOUGH MALLORY LAKE LIVED IN VERMONT, THE ROLLING hills, tall cypress trees, stuccoed buildings and incomparable light of Tuscany were her inspiration. The artist took frequent sojourns to Europe and then returned to her studio, with photographs in hand, to bring her handsome and luxuriously textured pastels to life. Each piece captures the dimension and shadow, the spirit and mood of its place. Her work has been the subject of various articles and exhibitions and is included in several New England and Canadian collections. Mallory Lake passed away in the summer of 2017.
