The Northeastern Association of Criminal Justice Sciences is the official regional organization of the Academy of Criminal Justice Sciences. It is an organization of scholars and criminal justice practitioners dedicated to improving scholarship, service, and practice in criminal justice. Benefits of membership include:

- The opportunity to build networks with criminal justice scholars and practitioners throughout the Northeast region through participation in the annual conference and other activities;
- Reduced conference registration fees;
- Access to the on-line membership directory;
- Late-breaking news on events, job opportunities, and other items of interest through our optional email list-service.

Goals and Objectives

- To promote the communication and dissemination of information of interest among members, other associations of education, and agencies of the criminal justice system.
- To develop an overall philosophy and standards of quality education in the administration of justice.
- To encourage both limited and long term planning and research in the criminal justice system.
- To establish a vehicle capable of providing technical assistance and evaluative services to agencies of the criminal justice system.

For membership options, please visit our website: neacjs.org.

Message from the archivist:

I understand that NEACJS designees may take photos (e.g., screen shots) of program participants during the program activities and events for use in educational or promotional materials in print, multimedia, or web form. Photos/videos will only be used for purposes related to the NEACJS archive and/or NEACJS promotions. If you do not want your photo to be used, please email Maria Garase at neacjs.archive@gmail.com

CJPR – NEACJS Policy Paper Award

Presented by Michele Bratina

The Northeastern Association of Criminal Justice Sciences (NEACJS) is proud to announce, for a second year, an award co-sponsored by SAGE/Criminal Justice Policy Review (CJPR). The CJPR-NEACJS Paper Award will be presented to one NEACJS member who has authored an original unpublished paper for the NEACJS Annual Meeting. The paper will be considered for publication in Criminal Justice Policy Review (CJPR). To help defray the costs of travel to the meeting, CJPR and NEACJS will partner to provide the recipient with a stipend of $500, and a check for that amount will be presented at the Annual NEACJS Meeting.

CJPR - NEACJS Paper Award Committee:

Michele Bratina
Jennifer Gossett
Alida Merlo
Michael E. Antonio
