

Private Sector Engagement Intern

Under the direction of the Director of Private Sector Engagement, the Private Sector Engagement Intern supports ECPAT-USA's Private Sector Engagement Team in working with companies to protect children.

This position is based in Brooklyn, NY with no option for remote employment

Applications without cover letters will not be considered

Duties, Tasks and Responsibilities:

- Prepare material for conferences, hearings, seminars and trainings
- Update social media
- Write articles website and newsletters
- Track corporate social responsibility trends related to the tourism industry
- Periodic research for new projects
- Create and design informational and promotional materials
- Create database of media contacts and organizations interested in the initiative- engage contacts

Required Experience:

- Bachelors degree [can be in process] in human rights related field
- Strong commitment to children's rights and business principles
- Strong organizational skills
- Excellent verbal and written communication skills
- Ability to balance multiple priorities
- Eagerness to be creative and take initiative on new ideas and projects
- Comfortable speaking in public and on the phone
- Can lead and organize teams of volunteers

Preferred Qualifications:

- General knowledge of children's rights and business principles
- Experience in corporate engagement
- Past experience working on trafficking issues

To Apply: Please send cover letter and resume to Carla Licavoli [clicavoli@ecpatusa.org].