Help ECPAT-USA Combat Human Trafficking and Reach 20,000 Business Events Leaders in Our 20BY20 Campaign

Our Goal
To teach twenty thousand events industry professionals what they can do to prevent and respond to human trafficking by July 30, 2020. 20BY20 will launch on July 30, 2019, in conjunction with the United Nations designated World Day Against Trafficking in Persons to drive awareness and inspire action that establishes the events industry as a front line of defense for authorities to help combat human trafficking.

Help build a future free from human trafficking.

About 20BY20
An integrated, industry-wide awareness campaign to educate business and social event, and travel industry professionals to identify and respond to the commercial exploitation of children.

This course provides both time-efficient and cost-effective training. In 25 minutes, Preventing & Responding To Human Trafficking And The Commercial Sexual Exploitation Of Children addresses the issue of human trafficking as well as the intersections between human trafficking and the events/travel industry. The module is available in English, Spanish, Portuguese, and French. ECPAT-USA also offers free tools and resources that can be used in conjunction with the training to help companies combat trafficking and inform clients and suppliers of their commitment.
