About ECPAT-USA: ECPAT-USA is the leading anti-child trafficking organization in the United States, seeking to end the commercial sexual exploitation of children through awareness, advocacy, policy, and legislation. ECPAT-USA is a member of ECPAT International, a network of organizations in more than 90 countries with one common mission: to eliminate the sexual exploitation of children around the world. For more information visit www.ecpatusa.org and www.ecpatusa.org/code.

Position Overview:
The Director of Private Sector Engagement (PSE) ensures businesses and relevant stakeholders understand how human traffickers and child exploiters use business structures to exploit victims and identify, develop, and/or deploy tools and best practices to stop it. This position is based in New York City, with regular domestic and occasional international travel required.

Duties, Tasks, and Responsibilities:
● Direct strategy for Private Sector Engagement in child exploitation and human trafficking fields;
● Manage recruitment and reporting for The Tourism Child-Protection Code of Conduct (The Code), a voluntary set of business principles that travel and tour companies can implement to prevent sexual exploitation and trafficking of children;
● Develop and maintain relationships with corporations eligible for ECPAT-USA e-learning modules and ensure updates of e-learning as needed;
● Public speaking with a diverse range of audiences of varying sizes;
● Strategize on engagement with lawmakers and the hotel industry on legislation to combat child sex trafficking and exploitation and publish updates on legislative developments;
● Strategize on developing partnerships with other private sector actors to expand education and engagement on preventing child sex trafficking and exploitation;
● Travel within the US at least 20% for meetings and presentations;
● Other duties as assigned.

Organization Relationships:
● Reports to the Executive Director;
● Supervise PSE staff and interns;
● Collaborates closely with ECPAT-USA Development and Communications staff;
● Collaborates with ECPAT-USA Administrative and Operations staff to ensure data tracking and reporting;
● Develops and maintains effective working relationships with the private sector.

Qualifications
● Master’s Degree in a relevant field (Corporate Social Responsibility, Public Policy, Social Work) preferred. A Bachelor’s Degree with significant relevant experience would also be considered;
● Experience working at foundations or non-governmental organizations on monitoring and evaluations;
● Experience children’s rights issues, child sex trafficking, and/or corporate social responsibility preferred;
● Strong critical and creative thinking and analytical skills;
● Strong written and oral communication skills;
● Familiarity with Salesforce, Google Drive and ability to navigate online technology;
● Strong ability to build and maintain strong working relationships with colleagues.
To Apply: Send a cover letter and CV to info@ecpatusa.org. Applications without a cover letter will not be considered.

All qualified applicants will be afforded equal employment opportunities without discrimination because of race, creed (religion), color, sex, national origin, sexual orientation, military status, age, disability, predisposing genetic characteristic, marital status or domestic violence victim status, and shall also follow the requirements of the Human Rights Law with regard to non-discrimination on the basis of prior criminal conviction and prior arrest.