

2022 Inter-Mountain Jr. Livestock Sale Contract

It is a privilege to sell an animal at the Inter – Mountain Jr. Livestock Sale, therefore the following is a list which must be met in order to sell.

- ❖ You are undertaking a 60 to 120 day commitment to your project animal.
- ❖ Exhibitors that have been enrolled in 4-H, FFA or GRANGE cannot change to Independent after January 1, 2022.
- ❖ 4-H / FFA Members must complete the requirements of their club/chapter for the year as set forth by their organization. Independent Exhibitors must complete the requirements set forth by the Junior Livestock Committee.
- ❖ You must feed and care for your project animal yourself, prior to and through the completion of the sale. The individual must solely own animals. Feeding times and consequences are spelled out in the Inter-Mountain Fair rules.
- ❖ You must participate in a livestock event of your project species prior to the Inter-Mountain Fair. All first year projects and all Beef exhibitors must attend a hands on livestock event. You must contact your 4-H Leader/FFA Chapter Advisor / IMF management and make arrangements to participate in another designated livestock event. Any exceptions must be cleared with your 4-H Leader/FFA Chapter Advisor / IMF Management. Documentation proving participation in livestock event must be made available to your 4-H Leader/FFA Chapter Advisor / IMF management.
- ❖ You must accompany your animal at weigh-in unless previous arrangements have been made with your leader/advisor/IMF Management, prior to the start of weigh-in. The fair manager must also be aware of these arrangements.
- ❖ You must attend the fair to show and sell your own animal at the discretion of fair management.
- ❖ During Field Day, if an animal is determined to be unmanageable, or could be a public safety hazard, a written warning will be given to exhibitor. The warning will be signed by the exhibitor, at least two adults, and the exhibitor's parent / guardian. If that animal is not manageable by Thursday of the Fair when class breaks are posted, the animal will need to be removed from the fairgrounds and will no longer be eligible to show or sell. The Livestock Superintendent/Fair Management makes this decision final.
- ❖ You must write a thank you note to your buyer(s) before you receive your sale check. Checks must be cashed within 90 days of issue or will be void.
- ❖ All pictures will be taken on show day. You are responsible for getting your animal to the picture area and getting your picture taken.
- ❖ Decisions by your 4-H Leader/FFA Advisor / IMF Management are final.
- ❖ All State, Local and Jr. Livestock rules shall be adhered to.
- ❖ The Jr. Livestock Sale is a terminal sale.
