FIFTY-SECOND ANNUAL REPORT
2016

575 MADISON AVENUE, SUITE 1006
NEW YORK, NY 10022-2511
www.bsuf.org
1) British Schools and Universities Foundation, Inc. has been approved by the United States Treasury Department as an exempt charitable organization under Section 501(c)(3) and is classified as a public domestic charity as defined in Sections 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi) of the Code.

An important facet of tax-deductibility is based upon the following ruling of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service: "Contributions to a domestic charity ... which are solicited for a specific project for a foreign charity organization, are deductible under Section 170 of the Code ... where the domestic charity has reviewed and approved the project as being in furtherance of its own exempt purposes and has control and discretion as to the use of the contributions."

2) The purposes of the Foundation, as set forth in its Certificate of Incorporation, are:
   a) to make donations, contributions and loans without interest in money, property or otherwise, out of the income and/or assets of the Corporation to, or for the use of, schools whether public or private, colleges whether sectarian or not, universities whether State or not, and educational, scientific or literary institutions of every kind or nature.
   b) to promote, foster and assist the education and academic work of British scholars and students at American educational institutions and vice versa.

3) The Foundation applies three criteria to the selection of educational, scientific or literary institutions to qualify for grants-in-aid:
   a) The applicant institution should be active in seeking financial support for specific projects which are clearly defined and documented. Acceptability of these projects should be demonstrated by the efforts of its graduates, alumni/ae and friends who comprise the institution's constituency in the United States.
   b) A non-American institution should have a demonstrable record of cooperation with the United States either by acceptance of American students or by collaboration with comparable institutions in the United States.
   c) The Foundation's grants-in-aid are limited to institutions in the United States and countries of the British Commonwealth of Nations.
The year 2016 shattered records for the British Schools & Universities Foundation. We received $7,865,254 in donations from 667 generous donors and approved 311 grants, totaling $7,571,588. This represented a 96 percent increase in donations and a 90 percent increase in grants. Cumulative grants now total more than $60,500,000. Operating expenses totaled only $63,869, or less than 1 percent of donations, and, as always, were funded by membership dues, gifts directed to BSUF, and income from BSUF’s investments – but never from donations with expressions of preference.

During the year, BSUF welcomed 17 new approved institutions. Our roster of approved institutions continues to grow without any advertising or marketing – nothing but word of mouth about BSUF’s longstanding reputation and our commitment to cost effective, tax efficient giving. We look forward to welcoming many more institutions in 2017 and beyond.

In 2016, we successfully relaunched BSUF’s support of the Marshall Aide Commemoration Commission Scholarship program. Mitchell Hermann, a composer and musical theorist from Oberlin, was named the BSUF Marshall Scholar for the 2016-17 and 2017-18 academic years. BSUF’s support is matched on a dollar-for-dollar basis by the Association of Marshall Scholars (“AMS”), the U.S. alumni association of Marshall Scholars. We are very excited about this partnership and its potential to fund additional scholars in the years to come.

The board in 2016 also approved renewed funding for support of Fulbright Scholars from the United Kingdom studying in the United States, beginning in the 2017-18 academic year. BSUF’s support for both the Marshall and Fulbright programs is funded from the Pearse Bequest, as well as income from other endowment funds and gifts to the foundation. We welcome additional support of our scholarship efforts. As with donations with expressions of preference for institutions, it is BSUF’s intent to distribute 100 percent of such gifts into scholarship support.

Special thanks this year to Jim Marlow, BSUF’s Executive Director, who managed the surge in donations and grants and the corresponding increase in administrative responsibilities over the year with his usual grace and aplomb. Jim has become the face of BSUF (albeit electronically in most cases) to many of our donors and institutions and has played a huge role in our success.

We welcome our members, US representatives, and others to join us for a board meeting and consider a more active involvement in the Foundation in 2017. Our board meetings are held from 12:30 to 2:30 on the second Tuesday in March, June, September, and December. For more information, please contact Jim Marlow at ExecDir@bsuf.org.

Thank you to all of our donors, institutions, and US representatives for your continued support of BSUF. We appreciate greatly the faith placed in us and we remain focused on providing our unique combination of seamless service at little or no cost.

David Lipson
WHAT WE DO

We are a catalyst enabling U.S. alumni/ae and friends to make tax-deductible donations with the option of nominating any approved institution for a possible grant.

We encourage British schools, universities and other educational institutions to reach out to their U.S. constituencies in their fund-raising efforts. This Foundation does not conduct campaigns nor assume any responsibility for fund-raising, but “helps those who help themselves”. Upon request, BSUF will provide technical advice to U.S. Representatives of approved institutions.

In its 20 years of operation BSUF has made cumulative grants totaling more than $60,000,000 (almost $80,000,000 in inflation-adjusted Dollars) to 441 institutions.
The British Schools and Universities Foundation is pleased to present the Fifty-Second Annual Report recording the Foundation’s activities during 2016. It was a most satisfying year and we wish to express our appreciation to our loyal supporters who have made that possible. Their gifts have enabled the Foundation to grant $7,571,588 to these ninety-two institutions:

PLEASE CONSIDER JOINING US

Unlike most Foundations BSUF strives to make grants equaling 100% of the donations it receives. All our Directors serve pro bono publico, thereby keeping our expenses to a minimum.

Dues paid by a core of loyal and generous members provide support for the Foundation’s entire mission. They also offer an opportunity for individuals and institutions benefiting from our free administrative services to help make these advantages more widely available.

Membership should appeal to those who value British educational ideals and traditions and wish to help sustain them in an era of declining government support. Finally, membership is an expression of belief in the importance of continuing good relations between the U.S. and member nations of the British Commonwealth.

As a form of recognition, Members’ names are printed in the Annual Report. BSUF members are invited to attend the Annual Meeting and Luncheon held each year in New York City (in 2016 at The Harvard Club of New York, 27 West 44th Street) and to partake in discussions concerning the affairs of the Foundation.

Philanthropic organizations such as BSUF must contend with financial strain imposed by inflation, changing economic and financial conditions and the occasional volatility of the public’s charitable instincts and preferences. Consequently, we deeply appreciate the trust, confidence and magnanimity of the Foundation’s many Members.

Annual dues for Associates, Fellows and Sustaining Members are $100, $250 and $500 respectively. Life membership is $5,000. We welcome institutional memberships at any level.

BSUF Marshall Scholarship Award 2016-2018

Mitchell Herrmann, a 2016 graduate of Oberlin College and recipient of the BSUF Marshall Scholarship for 2016-2018, is completing his second semester at the University of Manchester, where he is studying music composition and media art. Already an established composer with an impressive background in the field of electroacoustic musical composition, Mr. Herrmann continues to locate his academic and creative work at the “syncretic junctures of theory and practice, of ostensibly disparate traditions and disciplines.” With a particular interest in the ways philosophy can be used to understand and to create works of art, he has begun to expand his focus to include the relationship between music and the visual arts. He is especially excited about his participation in a current project whereby student composers at the University of Manchester are collaborating with curators at Manchester’s Whitworth Gallery to produce new music inspired by the visual art on display, this in preparation for a March concert.

Come September 2017, Mr. Herrmann will be pursuing a degree in contemporary art theory at the Centre for Research and Modern European Philosophy at Kingston University in London. Noting that his first year as a Marshall scholar has resulted in new perspectives on the creative process, he plans to study with professors such as Catherine Malabou and Eric Alliez, who are themselves leading figures in the latest generation of European philosophers and scholars actively engaged in Mr. Herrmann’s areas of specialization. Work with them will, he feels certain, will be invaluable preparation for his future doctoral and professional endeavors.

WAYS TO MAKE GIFTS TO BRITISH SCHOOLS & UNIVERSITIES FOUNDATION, INC.

Gifts made by check should be mailed to:

British Schools and Universities Foundation
575 Madison Avenue, Suite 1006
New York, NY 10022-2511

CASH GIFTS - Memberships
Annual Membership: $100 Associate; $250 Fellow;
$500 Sustaining; Life Membership: $5,000.

Separate cash gifts may be made to the Foundation, expressing preference for support of an Approved Institution.
Checks should be made payable to British Schools and Universities Foundation, Inc. (or BSUF) and postmarked on or before December 31st to qualify for a current-year tax deduction.

MATCHING GIFTS - Your employer may have a Matching Gift Program which could double or triple the value of your gift. The company will provide you with a form that when completed should be sent along with your check to BSUF.

SECURITIES - In giving gifts of marketable securities, donors could realize significant tax benefits.
See page 22 for instructions on "How to Give Securities".

GIFTS USING CREDIT CARDS - You can donate by credit card using the Network for Good which charges a fee of 5% of your credit card donation. To make a credit card gift please follow the procedures explained on the Donor Info page of our Web site at www.bsuf.org.

MAJOR FUNDS - Individual Funds for a dedicated objective within the Foundation's "Statement of Purposes and Policies" may be set up in the case of large donations.

CHARITABLE REMAINDER UNITRUST - A Unitrust designating BSUF as remainder beneficiary affords the donor an immediate charitable tax deduction in the year the trust is created. The trustee pays the donor income during his/her lifetime or that of any other living non-charitable beneficiary the donor may designate. At the death of the income recipient, the remaining assets in the trust would pass on to BSUF as charitable donee; donors may express a preference for an Approved Institution.

INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS can be made much more tax-efficient by naming BSUF as a beneficiary, with an expression of preference for an Approved Institution. This relieves the Estate of (a) the Distribution and Income Taxes which are levied by Federal and most State govern- ments; and (b) part of the regular Estate Tax.

The 2010 Tax Act retroactively extended an earlier provision allowing taxpayers over 70-1/2 years of age to make IRA distributions of up to $100,000 directly to qualified charities without being taxed on the withdrawals at ordinary income rates. This provision expired again at the end of 2012, but there are grounds for cautious optimism regarding another retroactive extension. If interested, please ask your professional advisors to notify you of any new developments.

BEQUESTS - A provision in the following form may be made in your Will or Trust bequeathing money to the Foundation; this is intended only as a provision in a full Will or Trust containing all appropriate articles.
SUGGESTED BEQUEST FORM

I bequeath the sum of ___ Dollars to British Schools and Universities Foundation, Inc., a charitable organization under Section 501(c) (3) of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service Code, and incorporated at 575 Madison Avenue, Suite 1006, New York, NY 10022-2511. Further, I express a preference that the Foundation consider granting aid to

________________________________________________
(Name of Institution)

(Location, such as Bristol, United Kingdom)

TRANSFER OF PRIVATE FOUNDATION ASSETS TO BSUF - Some British institutions established their own Private Foundations in the United States over recent years. Many are now finding that they have failed to satisfy the tax regulations of the U.S. Internal Revenue Service, or that the administrative burden of maintaining the Private Foundation year after year is more than their volunteers can cope with. One solution is proving to be the transfer of such remaining assets to a Public Charity such as BSUF, which is not a Private Foundation under Section 509 (a) and 170 (b) of the Internal Revenue Code.

U.S. INCOME TAX DEDUCTIONS - Gifts are fully deductible; no goods or services are offered.

ACCOUNTING AND LEGAL GUIDANCE should in all cases be sought from your own professional advisers. Whilst BSUF has general business experience which you may draw on, BSUF is not permitted to offer tax and legal consultation.

HISTORICAL BACKGROUND

In the 1950s, a group led by Thomas E. Ward conceived the idea of British Schools & Universities Foundation (BSUF). After overcoming many obstacles, they organized BSUF as a New York State membership corporation on May 1, 1961. The persistent efforts of Mr. Ward, Justice Frederick R. Sanborn and CPA/Tax Attorney Andrew Nelson secured an IRS Tax Exemption Certificate on April 27, 1964.

Much of BSUF’s success reflects the formative influence of its early Directors – most notably, the policymaking initiatives of General Counsel Sydney C. Waldecker. Director John F. Rich offered the benefit of his experience as founder of a major fundraising firm. Treasurer Lionel A. deCastro contributed invaluable financial expertise. Vice Presidents A. Denys Cadman and Arthur Grundy provided strong executive abilities. Grundy also brought BSUF to the attention of Richard A. and Kathleen B. May, who admired its work and later made a major bequest to the Foundation.

After the passing of BSUF’s founder in 1969, the Directors established the Thomas E. Ward Memorial Fund in gratitude for his inspiring leadership. His successor was Bruce F. E. Harvey, OBE, a versatile and tireless executive officer who served a total of fifteen years as President and Chairman. Over the following ten years, skillful management by successors Thomas E. Ward, Jr. and Alan C. Root further advanced the work of the founders, resulting in accelerated growth and improved operating efficiency. They were succeeded in turn by Scott Bushey and David Lipson, whose joint tenure spanned a critical transition to computerized recordkeeping and a sophisticated database system developed by Director David Webber, who also radically improved BSUF’s website and other communications capabilities. Chairman David Lipson initiated a thorough review and update of operating procedures.

In 2006, a bequest from former Chairman Alan Root became a memorial fund bearing his name. Shortly thereafter, a bequest of Charles M. F. Pearse funded an endowment to underwrite scholarships in music and writing. Income from investment of BSUF’s memorial funds helps offset the expense of its commitments to furthering educational, scientific and literary work of British Commonwealth institutions and scholars.

BSUF’s total cumulative grants to institutions and scholars have totaled more than $40,000,000.
