HOW TO ATTEND THE GRID

While the tickets for various events are handled by the ticketing platform "Elevent", the actual event itself is hosted by Filmocracy. These are the instructions for using your tickets.

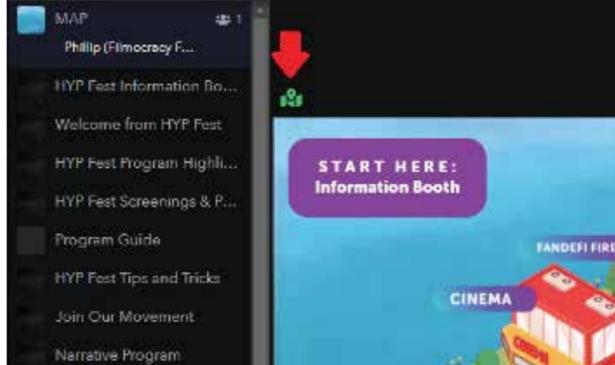

1. Go to festival.filmocracy.com/grid
2. You'll now need to register on Filmocracy using the same email you purchased your tickets with. Once you've done so, you'll need to check your email for verification.

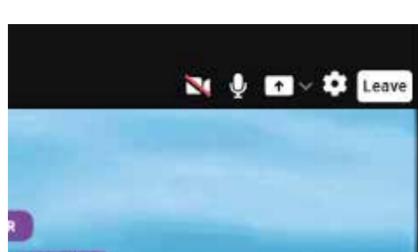

3. After you've verified your email, enter your name and click "Join Now"

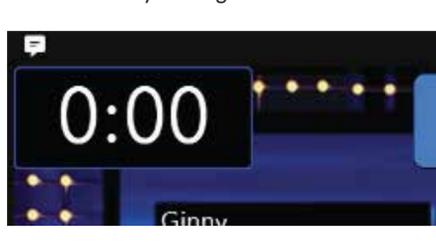

4. Navigate through the virtual event using the map or room list on the left. If you do not see a list of rooms on the left side, click the map icon on the top left of the virtual event space

5. Turn your microphone and camera on/off using the icons on the top right of the virtual event space. Click the gear icon to change your name/profile picture or access other settings.

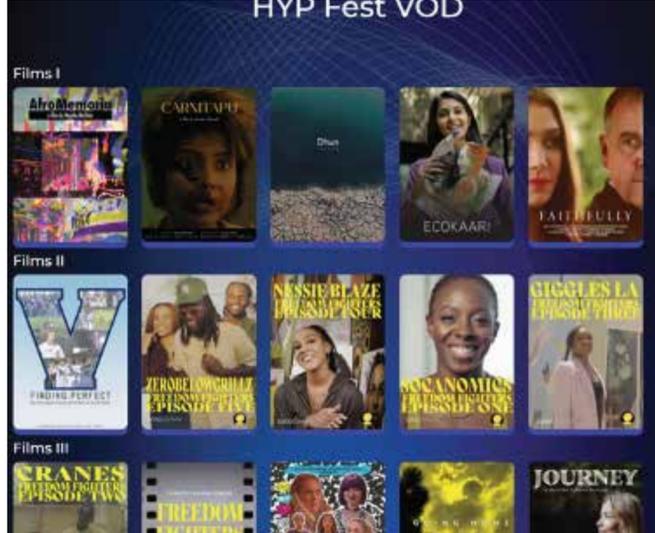

6. Send messages to other users by clicking on the chat icon at the top left

7. When you join a virtual conference room, you will be automatically placed into a participant slot. You can move to different locations by clicking on yourself and dragging the image into a different spot

8. Watch films in the VOD Theater by clicking on the film posters

9. Enjoy the event and explore everything else the festival has to offer!
