Self Help Graphics & Art Receives Grant for the Next Pacific Standard Time

Self Help Graphics & Art has received a grant to prepare for the next edition of the region-wide arts initiative Pacific Standard Time (PST), scheduled to open in 2024. Funding will support SHG's PST exhibition, Sinks: Places We call Home. The organization is one of 45 cultural, educational, and scientific institutions throughout Southern California to receive support from the Getty Foundation for their projects, all of which will explore the intersection of art and science. Read about our grant news here.

Creative Labs Student Virtual Exhibition

2020 was a difficult year for everyone, especially our youth. Through Self Help Graphics & Art's Creative Labs partnership with neighboring Mendez

High School, SHG's teaching artists led a series of workshops for students during the Fall 2020 semester, culminating in a series of personal experiences captured in visual stories and artworks. Read our Creative Labs story here to learn more and see their work.

2020: A Year of Advocacy to Defend Black Lives, Support Artists, Youth and Protect Renters Amid Pandemic

Last year was a tumultuous one where advocacy and art for social change took a strong lead in our community.

The economic and emotional impact of the pandemic exacerbated the needs of Angelenos, leading to a greater need to take a stand for Black lives, wellness, protections for workers, tenants, and our BIPOC community as a whole. Read our advocacy year in review here.
