History Matters  by Holly Hoods, Executive Director/Curator

I hope you have been enjoying this beautiful summer. The Museum has been busy and lively. It is gratifying to see so many visitors at our exhibition, “Healdsburg’s Architectural Heritage.”

We anticipate that even more locals will be drawn to visit because of the new promo that Bob Pennypacker just made for us. Multi-talented Bob is a realtor and former architect who enjoys making promotional videos. He created and financed a brief video about the exhibition. It is currently being shown before the feature films screened at the Raven Theater. Check it out the next time you see a film there. We appreciate Bob’s efforts to help us reach more potential visitors!

Remember the huge, damaged Sotoyome Market oil painting the Museum had repaired and restored in 2015? It now hangs in a place of pride over the stairs in the Museum gallery. The painting’s restoration had many interesting aspects and presented numerous challenges for art conservator Niccolo Calderaro of Conservation Art Service. Niccolo has asked me to collaborate with him on an article about the restoration project for publication in an upcoming issue of Museum Management and Curatorship, a respected journal in the Museum field. We are working on it this month and I am honored to collaborate with him.

President’s Corner  by Ronnie Devitt, Board President

I’ve missed the Museum…

Having been gone from Healdsburg and the Museum for most of the summer, I found that I genuinely missed the Museum. This surprised me a bit. Although I regularly attend exhibitions at other Museums, I have never “missed” a museum on an emotional level. So why this feeling when I have been involved with the Museum for less than five years? First, I love being in the Healdsburg Museum. I learn a lot from reading the background associated with every exhibition. Many of the visitors I greet as a Sunday afternoon receptionist are very interesting people. On days of sparse attendance, the gallery is a very tranquil space in which to spend a couple of hours. More importantly, volunteering for the Museum has brought me into the Museum family which is an amazing group of caring, supportive people.

Based on my experience, I highly recommend joining the Healdsburg Museum Volunteer Association. You can devote as little as a couple of hours a month as a receptionist or as much time as you can give. I guarantee that it will be an enriching experience for you.

As summer is winding down, don’t forget to visit the last Museum-sponsored 2018 Antiques and Arts Fair on the Plaza on Sunday, August 26, 9:00 am to 4:00 pm. The Fair is a fundraiser for the Museum. Our profit comes from fees paid by vendors for the rental space. Good attendance at the Fair encourages more vendors to rent space at future fairs. So be sure to walk around the Plaza on the August 26. You’ll see an interesting array of antiques, art and treasures.

If you haven’t seen it, check out the current exhibition “Healdsburg’s Architectural Heritage” and the related video prepared by Bob Pennypacker available at the Raven Theater and on youtube.

I would like to encourage everyone to learn more about what the Healdsburg Museum & Historical Society has to offer. Visit and ask questions about our projects and needs. HM&HS has the responsibility to protect and preserve the history and collections of Healdsburg and Northern Sonoma County. Our research room is the exciting serendipity center where coincidences occur regularly (!) and our volunteers are a talented and dedicated group. Please consider making a donation of your time as a volunteer, make a monetary donation or even offer a matching grant.

Be sure to have a look in the back room of the Research Room at the new shelving Jon Lacaillade installed to hold archival boxes of ephemera that Diane Carriger has been diligently scanning. Diane has already moved the boxes, which freed up room in the tall metal cabinets for other items. You always need room to grow when it comes to collection storage!

After nine years as the HMVA Chair, my term on the Museum Board ends this year. It has been an honor to hold this job. I have found it interesting and amazingly satisfying, but now I wish to retire.

This position provides a conduit among all behind-the-scenes aspects of the Museum and includes working with our dedicated staff, talented volunteers, receptionists, committees, etc. Leading the monthly HMVA meetings and attending the Board of Directors meetings have provided me with additional insight to assist everyone in building a better organization.

I remember choosing my first HMVA task back in 2010. I decided to learn what each volunteer did and the jobs of the various committees. It has been amazing how that list has evolved and just how long it has become.

Please contact Holly or me if you, or even two of you, would enjoy this position. I look forward to guiding someone else to take over the position and enjoy it as much as I have.

I will not be sitting idly by. I am in the early stages of setting up a museum in the back of the Bosworth store/museum in Geyserville. From the early 1900s floorboards on up, it will be quite a challenge!

Many “new” old items are surfacing within the store and local folks are starting to bring items for display. I have set up a proper accessioning system like HM&HS, so I will have steady work!

2018 Langhart Dinner

by Holly Hoods, Executive Director/Curator

The Museum’s 65 guests had a wonderful time at the Langhart Award Ceremony and Volunteer Appreciation Dinner at Simi Winery on June 23. Named for Edwin Langhart, founder of HM&HS, this annual award recognizes outstanding volunteer service to our Museum.

Hosted by the Museum Board, this year we presented the 25th Langhart Volunteer Award to two very deserving volunteers: Cilla Marshall and Rawleigh Fjeld. Board President Ronnie Devitt welcomed the guests and warmly acknowledged the importance of volunteers to our organization. I had the pleasure of describing the many contributions Cilla and Rawleigh have made to our organization. The honorees graciously received their tributes.

It was our first time hosting an event at historic Simi Winery. We couldn’t have been happier. Thanks to the talented Simi hospitality team, every detail was handled and made comfortable for our guests, even in very hot weather. We loved the well-designed event layout and their elegant family style seating.

The food and wines were outstanding. The menu included gourmet pizzas from their wood-fired brick oven, pasta primavera, Caesar salad and a special dessert paired with Simi wines. Every dish was seasonal, colorful, beautiful and delicious.

We hope you can join us when we’ll back at Simi again next year!

In the Merry Month of May

by Jane Bonham, Office Manager

We joyed to meet and griev’d to part,
We sigh’d when night came on...

– Stephen Foster

What a month it was at the Museum’s recent membership drive! Determined to entice local residents to explore the current exhibition and encourage them to join the Museum, members of the Board, staff and volunteers hosted several unique events – all to resounding success.

Board members Carol Peterson and Phyllis Chiosso Liu made the Healdsburg Tribune and the Press Democrat with the party they created for local book groups, attended as well by Board members Ronnie Devitt, Jeanne Hartlaub and Rawleigh Fjeld. The gallery was filled with literary fans who enjoyed the exhibition and visiting with each other, not to mention the catering by Peter Leary and the well-received cocktails designed by Phyllis. Literary Guild President (and Healdsburg Museum past President) Ted Calvert gave an heartfelt speech about the importance of the Museum's work preserving and sharing the history of our community.

Later in the month, Executive Director/Curator Holly Hoods hosted a soiree with one of her Facebook groups along with another feast catered by Peter.

In the last week of the drive, the Healdsburg Kiwanis Club held their monthly meeting in the gallery, happily providing their own caterer and music while perusing the exhibition.

The receptions were doubly successful. Neighbors who had never visited before enjoyed the Museum and some of them signed on as members.

Others contributed to the campaign as well. Thanks to the many Museum members who participated by giving gifts to friends and family and, most especially, to Ann and Edson Howard who underwrote the Museum’s costs.

All in all, a very successful month; let’s make it a tradition. From now on “May is Membership Month!”

Going Once, Going Twice…

If you’ve attended a Museum History Lives event in the past few years, you know that the silent and live auction portions of the evening are fun…and effective fundraisers. We plan to continue making these auctions an integral part of the upcoming event on October 20 and we would welcome some assistance. If you’re interested in procuring items that would be appropriate for either of these auctions or if you have some great ideas for auction lots that you think would be appealing to our guests, we want to hear from you. Please contact Holly at holly@healdsburgmuseum.org.

Oak Mound Cemetery Update

It has been important to continue weed cutting efforts in June and July to preserve the restoration progress that has been accomplished at Oak Mound Cemetery. Thanks to Jim Dreisback for coordinating two cemetery clean-up days with the approval of the cemetery owners.

A big thanks to John Grace, Grace Vineyard Management, for his continued support of the project. He has been one of our most generous supporters. On June 22 John provided four employees and much needed equipment to work at the cemetery.

We also want to acknowledge Healdsburg American Legion Post 111 for their work at the cemetery in June. They provided three workers, Terry Wilson, Tony Grado and Tim Madura, Post Commander.

Kudos to the following volunteers who pitched in at the June 2 cemetery workday: Jim and Meredith Dreisback, Fred Leoni, Dave Gradek, Tom Meldau, Ed Liu and Kay Robinson.

Thanks also to the Healdsburg Garden Club members Katherine Bottini and Becky Goodsell for keeping the fountain plantings healthy. The flags looked beautiful there on July 4.

We also appreciate a generous donation to the cemetery fund from Norm and Peachie Dunlavy in memory of the Demostene/Ferrari families and from Elizabeth ("Betty") Weeks in memory of Dr. William Shipley.

We are working with the cemetery owners to establish a seasonal, multi-year weed abatement program that will be managed by Gardenworks. Thanks to Museum Board member Jerry Eddinger for his help in coordinating this effort.

We are also looking for people interested in Oak Mound Cemetery to form a new committee to help guide the next phase of ongoing maintenance. If you would like to get involved, please contact Jim Dreisback (jmdreisback@yahoo.com) or Holly Hoods (holly@healdsburgmuseum.org).
