DESCRIPTION

7a. Architectural style: Homestead Cottage

7b. Briefly describe the present physical description of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

This one and one-half story gabled structure appears to have had a shed roof addition to rear. The gables are open and the building is sheathed in rustic siding. A simple hip-roof porch is supported by square posts with no balustrade system. Double-hung windows of various size and proportions are set randomly throughout the structure.
