DESCRIPTION
7a. Architectural style: Queen Anne

7b. Briefly describe the present physical description of the site or structure and describe any major alterations from its original condition:

A single story cottage with an H-shaped outline. The house has an offset front gable and a side gable. There is a shed roof on a back addition and the verandah is covered by a hip roof. The boxed cornice on the main structure has sawn brackets beneath it. The gables, closed in the front with a multi-paned colored glass window, and the open side gable, are both filled with cut shingles. The structure has channel rustic siding and double-hung windows. There is a transom over the front door. The verandah roof wraps around the front and side and is supported by slender columns with Corinthian capitals.
