

Farmwall Urban Farming Opportunity

Location: Sydney CBD-based

Contracted role: 5 to 10 hours per week, spread over 5 days, flexible hours (ABN required)

Timing: Up to 12 months, to start as soon as possible

Are you already involved in urban farming? Perhaps you are looking at getting more involved, without having to give up your full-time job? Are you curious about the movement of growing food in the city and want to get to know the community? Are you keen to learn about aquaponics and hydroponics?

Farmwall is looking for a passionate green thumb who can assist us with looking after a 25 square meter basement farm and 3 Farmwalls located on George Street in the heart of Sydney. cultivate.mirvac.com

We are a Melbourne based Ag-Tech startup on a mission to transform our cities into food producing eco-systems. We design and implement natural, food producing solutions in urban spaces with the goal of enhancing the built environment with positive social and environmental outcomes. farmwall.com.au

This will be the right fit for you if you...

- Have a keen interest in permaculture, horticulture, aquaponics and hydroponics
- Believe growing food in the city is crucial to develop a sustainable urban environment
- Available for 1 to 1.5 hours, 5 days a week in Sydney CBD
- Confident in a corporate environment, a good communicator, and you dress accordingly.
- Known for your reliability, integrity and excellent work ethics

Your responsibilities will consist of the following weekly activities:

- Performing water tests (Farmwalls, hydroponic farm)
- Feeding a range of different fish (Farmwalls)
- Spray, inspect and harvest oyster mushrooms, and deliver them to the local cafe
- Seed and germinate 12 to 24 micro green trays per week to supply the Farmwalls
- Perform system checks, maintenance, health and pest checks and respond accordingly
- Harvest produce, order and plant new seedlings in the Cultivate Farm, water the beds
- Manage the worm bin and coffee ground compost
- Keep track of the required data and report back to Farmwall Melbourne

We are looking for a person with the right ambitions and intentions who can grow along with our exciting enterprise as the opportunities arise. If you are as excited about the future as we are, and ready to take action, please send your resume to media@farmwall.com.au and we'll get in touch as soon as possible.
