Government funding cuts in education mean that many children are missing out on enrichment programmes that offer new perspectives and develop emotional intelligence to nurture wellbeing. Schools can no longer stand alone and need their communities to support them directly by helping to bring enrichment programmes to the young people that need them the most.

Become a ThoughtBox Champion today and help support the next generation to thrive. We invite you to:

- Tell a school or teacher about ThoughtBox
- Sign up to our newsletter and follow us on Facebook & Twitter
- Sponsor a school with a ThoughtBox curriculum for just £30 per month
