How can education meet the world we’re living in?

For today’s learners of all ages need to become familiar with new technologies and rapidly changing workplaces.

Using a whole child, whole system, approach to learning is at the heart of our efforts to adapt to change and transform the world we live in.

Formerly a Principal Consultant for the International Education Agency as well as a Headteacher for over 20 years, Annie has had extensive experience in school leadership, both nationally and internationally. She is one of the non-executive directors of ThoughtBox and an essential part of our advisory board.
